In 1774 instances there under sixteen years of age have been enumerated, were, perhaps, the children of widows and not of the same Slocums. In what cases were children very young have not been included in the enumeration.

Signatures after their emancipation often occurred the names of their former masters, as was formerly the case with servants in other countries. The Massachusetts Revolutionary War Bells, and the Rhode Island Colonial Bells, show that there were in the Revolutionary War several negro soldiers with the army.
