Episcopal Women the late Catherine M. Prelinger, 1996-03-14 The opening of the ordained ministry to women in the larger context of the women s movement in America has created an unprecedented situation within Protestant denominations Women are now increasingly visible in religious organizations previously administered solely by men Congregations church agencies educational institutions and volunteer organizations are all affected by the gender shift within mainstream Protestantism Episcopal Women is the first careful historical and sociological study of the impact of these gender changes on a particular religious institution This groundbreaking volume includes essays on Episcopal theology and women s spirituality the urban church aging and the church women s organizations women donors clerical leadership and black women s experience in the Episcopal Church Her Majesty's Texans Robert J. Robertson, 1998 Two English Immigrants in Reconstruction Texas Women, Culture, and Community: Religion and Reform in Galveston, 1880-1920 Elizabeth Hayes Turner Associate Professor of History University of Houston, 1997-11-17 In this work Elizabeth Turner addresses a central question in post Reconstruction social history why did middle class women expand their activities from the private to the public sphere and begin in the years just before World War I an unprecedented activism Using Galveston as a case study Turner examines how a generally conservative traditional environment could produce important women s organizations for Progressive reform She concludes that the women of Galveston though slow to respond to national movements were stirred to action on behalf of their local community Local organizations particularly Episcopal and Presbyterian churches and traditional everyday social activities provided a nurturing environment for budding reformers and a foundation for activist organizations and programs such as poor relief and progressive reform Ultimately women became politicized even as they continued their roles as guardians of traditional domestic values Women Culture and Community will appeal to scholars and students of the post Reconstruction South women's history activist history and religious history Historical Magazine of the Protestant Episcopal Church Edward Clowes Chorley, Walter Herbert Stowe, Lawrence L.
