

The background of the cover features a stylized, light gray map of Chicago, showing its various neighborhoods and the surrounding Lake Michigan. Overlaid on this map are numerous concentric, light gray circles that radiate from the center-right side, creating a ripple effect across the entire cover. The title is prominently displayed in the upper-middle section of the map.

Wasiullah Kahn, Salina Kahn, Mary Abowd, Louise Cainkar, Helena Znaniecka, Bozena Nowicka McLees, Isidro Lucas, Carol Olteanu, Vasile Bouleanu, Biljana Slijivic-Simsic, Jasmina Savic, Marina Filipovic, Thomas Ward, Rosemary Wisnosky, Tim Johnson, Myron Kuropas, Ngoan Le, Matthew Holzman, 2012-09-20 The second edition completely updated with six county demographics Cook Lake DuPage McHenry Will and Kane historical backgrounds immigration and migration patterns cultural traditions issues for the communities special health concerns and more Covers 37 of the area s most prominent ethnic communities in individual chapters each written by scholars and community leaders

The Ethnic Handbook Cynthia Linton, 1996 Chicago , This book provides a comprehensive portrayal of the growth and development of Chicago from the mudhole of the prairie to today s world class city This completely revised fourth edition skillfully weaves together the geography history economy and culture of the city and its suburbs with a special emphasis on the role of the many ethnic and racial groups that comprise the real Chicago of its neighborhoods

Ethnic Origins Jeremy Hein, 2006-04-13 Immigration studies have increasingly focused on how immigrant adaptation to their new homelands is influenced by the social structures in the sending society particularly its economy Less scholarly research has focused on the ways that the cultural make up of immigrant homelands influences their adaptation to life in a new country In Ethnic Origins Jeremy Hein investigates the role of religion family and other cultural factors on immigrant incorporation into American society by comparing the experiences of two little known immigrant groups living in four different American cities not commonly regarded as immigrant gateways Ethnic Origins provides an in depth look at Hmong and Khmer refugees people who left Asia as a result of failed U S foreign policy in their countries These groups share low socio economic status but are vastly different in their norms values and histories Hein compares their experience in two small towns Rochester Minnesota and Eau Claire Wisconsin and in two big cities Chicago and Milwaukee and examines how each group adjusted to these different settings The two groups encountered both community hospitality and narrow minded hatred in the small towns contrasting sharply with the cold anonymity of the urban pecking order in the larger cities Hein finds that for each group their ethnic background was more important in shaping adaptation patterns than the place in which they settled Hein shows how in both the cities and towns the Hmong s sharply drawn ethnic boundaries and minority status in their native land left them with less affinity for U S citizenship or Asian American panethnicity than the Khmer whose ethnic boundary is more porous Their differing ethnic backgrounds also influenced their reactions to prejudice and discrimination The Hmong with a strong group identity perceived greater social inequality and supported collective political action to redress wrongs more than the individualistic Khmer who tended to view personal hardship as a solitary misfortune rather than part of a larger scale injustice Examining two unique immigrant groups in communities where immigrants have not traditionally settled Ethnic Origins vividly illustrates the factors that shape immigrants response to American society and suggests a need to refine prevailing theories of immigration Hein s book is at once a novel look at a little known segment of America s melting pot and a significant contribution to research on Asian immigration to the United States A Volume in the American Sociological Association s Rose Series in Sociology The Ultimate Multi-ethnic Resource for Chicago Cynthia Linton,1998 Chinese Chicago Huping Ling,2012-01-18 Numerous studies have documented the transnational experiences and local activities of Chinese immigrants in California and New York in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Less is known about the vibrant Chinese American community that developed at the same time in Chicago In this sweeping account Huping Ling offers the first comprehensive history of Chinese in Chicago beginning with the arrival of the pioneering Moy brothers in the 1870s and continuing to the present Ling focuses on how race transnational migration and community have defined Chinese in Chicago Drawing upon archival documents in English and Chinese she charts how Chinese made a place for themselves among the multiethnic neighborhoods of Chicago cultivating friendships with local authorities and consciously avoiding racial conflicts Ling takes readers through the decades exploring evolving family structures and relationships the development of community organizations and the operation of transnational businesses She pays particular attention to the influential role of Chinese in Chicago s academic and intellectual communities and to the complex and conflicting relationships among today s more dispersed Chinese Americans in Chicago City Indian Rosalyn R. LaPier,David R. M. Beck,2015-05-01 In City Indian Rosalyn R LaPier and David R M Beck tell the engaging story of American Indian men and women who migrated to Chicago from across America From the 1893 World s Columbian Exposition to the 1934 Century of Progress Fair American Indians in Chicago voiced their opinions about political social educational and racial issues City Indian focuses on the privileged members of the American Indian community in Chicago who were doctors nurses business owners teachers and entertainers During the Progressive Era more than at any other time in the city s history they could be found in the company of politicians and society leaders at Chicago s major cultural venues and events and in the press speaking out When Mayor Big Bill Thompson declared that Chicago public schools teach America First American Indian leaders publicly challenged him to include the true story of First Americans As they struggled to reshape nostalgic perceptions of American Indians these men and women developed new associations and organizations to help each other and to ultimately create a new place to call home in a modern American city Namaste America Padma Rangaswamy, 2010-11 At some point during the 1990s the size of the Asian Indian population in the United States surpassed the one million mark Today's Indians in America are a diverse group They come from every state in India as well as from around the globe England Canada South Africa Tanzania Fiji Guyana and Trinidad They also belong to many religious faiths including Hinduism Islam Sikhism Jainism Christianity and Zoroastrianism Many have high professional skills and are fluent in English and familiar with Western culture They have settled throughout the United States largely in metropolitan areas Namaste America tells this story of Indian immigrants in America focusing on one of the largest communities Chicago Czech American Bibliography Miloslav

Rechcigl, 2011-10-20 This is a comprehensive bibliography of publications relating to Czechs in America from the earliest time since the discovery of the New World to date covering their settlement community life and their contributions to their host country Although emphasis is on English titles including books as well as articles the relevant titles in Czech language have also been included particularly in those areas where there is a paucity of English titles English translations of the Czech titles were normally placed in parentheses To assure maximum utility the bibliography has been organized and classified into specific sectors by subject Under most major headings general surveys are listed first followed by more specific categories which have in turn been subdivided into subcategories Individual entries in all sections are arranged chronologically Under most subject areas separate biographical sections were added comprising individuals of note in the respective fields Apart from providing information on just about every aspect of human endeavor it is hoped that it will induce serious students and scholars to do more work in areas that have not been adequately researched Chicago, Metropolis of the Mid-continent

Irving Cutler, 2006 Chicago Metropolis of the Mid Continent provides a comprehensive portrayal of the growth and development of Chicago from the mudhole of the prairie to today's world class city This completely revised fourth edition skillfully weaves together the geography history economy and culture of the city and its suburbs with a special emphasis on the role of the many ethnic and racial groups that comprise the real Chicago of its neighborhoods Cutler demonstrates how the geography of Chicagoland and the influx of a diverse population spurred transportation industrial technology the economy and sporadic planning to foster rapid urban growth which brought both great progress and severe problems Through insightful analysis Cutler also traces the demographic and societal changes to Chicago critically examining such problems as the environment education racial tension crime welfare housing employment and transportation Richly illustrated with nearly three hundred drawings photos maps and tables the volume includes six appendices with sections dedicated to Chicago facts population growth and income data weather and climate significant dates and historic sites

Cultural Competence Compendium , 1999 The ultimate resource in providing patient centered care This book aids physicians in examining each patient's cultural background so that appropriate respectful patient centered care is always provided It consists of an annotated list of resources such as policies publications and web sites regarding health care and communication issues confronting people from underrepresented and underserved racial ethnic and socioeconomic groups and those with physical or mental illnesses or disabilities

Chicago by the Book The Caxton Club, 2018-11-20 Despite its rough and tumble image Chicago has long been identified as a city where books take center stage In fact a volume by A J Liebling gave the Second City its nickname Upton Sinclair's The Jungle arose from the midwestern capital's most infamous industry The great Chicago Fire led to the founding of the Chicago Public Library The city has fostered writers such as Nelson Algren Saul Bellow and Gwendolyn Brooks Chicago's literary magazines The Little Review and Poetry introduced the world to Eliot Hemingway Joyce and Pound The city's robust commercial printing industry supported a flourishing culture of the book With this beautifully produced collection Chicago's rich literary tradition finally gets its due Chicago by the Book profiles 101 landmark publications about Chicago from the past 170 years that have helped define the city and its image Each title carefully selected by the Caxton Club a venerable Chicago bibliophilic organization is the focus of an illustrated essay by a leading scholar writer or bibliophile Arranged chronologically to show the history of both the city and its books the essays can be read in order from Mrs John H Kinzie's 1844 Narrative of the Massacre of Chicago to Sara Paretsky's 2015 crime novel Brush Back Or one can dip in and out savoring reflections on the arts sports crime race relations urban planning politics and even Mrs O Leary's legendary cow The selections do not shy from the underside of the city recognizing that its grit and graft have as much a place in the written imagination as soaring odes and boosterism As Neil Harris observes in his introduction Even when Chicagoans celebrate their hearth and home they do so while acknowledging deep seated flaws At the same time this collection heartily reminds us all of what makes Chicago as Norman Mailer called it the great American city With essays from among others Ira Berkow Thomas Dyja Ann Durkin Keating Alex Kotlowitz Toni Preckwinkle Frank Rich Don Share Carl Smith Regina Taylor Garry Wills and William Julius Wilson and featuring works by Saul Bellow Gwendolyn Brooks Sandra Cisneros Clarence Darrow Erik Larson David Mamet Studs Terkel Ida B Wells Barnett Frank Lloyd Wright and many more
