Confronting Postmaternal Thinking Julie Stephens, 2012-03-20

There is a deep cultural anxiety around public expressions of maternalism and the application of maternal values to society as a whole Julie Stephens examines why postmaternal thinking has become so influential in recent decades and why there has been a growing unease with maternal forms of subjectivity and maternalist perspectives In moving beyond policy definitions which emphasize the priority given to women s claims as employees over their political claims as mothers Stephens details an elaborate process of cultural forgetting that has accompanied this repudiation of the maternal Reclaiming an alternative feminist position through an investigation of oral history life narratives Web blogs and other rich and varied sources Stephens confronts the core claims of postmaternal thought and challenges dominant representations of feminism as having forgotten motherhood Deploying the interpretive framework of memory studies she examines the political structures of forgetting surrounding the maternal and the weakening of nurture and care in the public domain She views the promotion of an illusory self sufficient individualism as a form of social unmothering that is profoundly connected to this ethos In rejecting both traditional maternalism and the new postmaternalism Stephens challenges prevailing paradigms and makes way for an alternative feminist maternalism centering on a politics of care

The Art of Dying Gareth Richard Schott, 2023-08-03 The Art of Dying 21st Century Depictions of Death and Dying examines how contemporary media platforms are used to produce creative accounts responses and reflections on the course of dying death and grief Outside the public performance of grief at funerals grief can strike in anticipation of a loss or it can endure continuing to interject itself and interrupt a permanently changed life This book examines the particular affordances possessed by various contemporary creative forms and platforms that capture and illuminate different aspects of the phenomenology of dying and grief It explores the subversive and unguarded nature of stand up comedy the temporal and spatial inventiveness of graphic novels the creative constructions of documentary filmmaking the narrative voice of young adult literature the realism of documentary theatre alongside more ubiquitous media such as social media television and games This book is testament to the power of creative expression to elicit vicarious grief and sharpen our awareness of death
