The World of Late Antiquity Peter Brown,2024-04-25 The first century AD was one of momentous events the end of the Roman empire the rise of Christianity across western Europe and the disappearance of Persia from the Near East an era in which the most deep rooted of ancient institutions disappeared for all time creating divergent legacies which are still present Renowned historian Peter Brown examines these changes and the reactions to them to show that the period of Late Antiquity was one of outstanding new beginnings and far reaching impacts The result is a lucid answer to a crucial question in world history how the exceptionally homogenous Mediterranean world of the first century AD became divided into the three mutually estranged societies of the Middle Ages Catholic Western Europe Byzantium and the Islamic world Browns remarkable study in social and cultural transformation explains how and why the Late Antique world came to differ from the Classical civilization of the Greeks and Romans Featuring a new preface and updated with colour illustrations throughout The World of Late Antiquity demonstrates that we still have much to learn from this enduring and intriguing period of history

Christianization and Communication in Late Antiquity Jaclyn L. Maxwell, 2006-10-19 How did ordinary people and Church authorities communicate with each other in late antiquity and how did this interaction affect the processes of Christianization in the Roman Empire By studying the relationship between the preacher and his congregation within the context of classical urban traditions of public speaking this book explains some of the reasons for the popularity of Christian sermons during the period Its focus on John Chrysostom s sermons allows us to see how an educated church leader responded to and was influenced by a congregation of ordinary Christians As a preacher in Antioch Chrysostom took great care to convey his lessons to his congregation which included a broad cross section of society Because of this his sermons provide a fascinating view into the variety of beliefs held by the laity demonstrating that many people could be actively engaged in their religion while disagreeing with their preacher The Legend of Mar Qardagh Joel Walker, 2006-04-24 This pioneering study uses an early seventh century Christian martyr legend to elucidate the culture and society of late antique Iraq Translated from Syriac into English here for the first time the legend of Mar Qardagh introduces a hero of epic proportions whose characteristics confound simple classification During the several stages of his career Mar Qardagh hunts like a Persian King argues like a Greek philosopher and renounces his Zoroastrian family to live with monks high in the mountains of Iraqi Kurdistan Drawing on both literary and artistic sources Joel Walker explores the convergence of these diverse themes in the Christian culture of the Sasanian Empire 224 642 Taking the Qardagh legend as its foundation his study guides readers through the rich and complex world of late antique Iraq A.H.M. Jones and the Later Roman Empire David Morton Gwynn, 2008 This volume offers a reassessment of the life and scholarship of A H M Jones and of the impact and legacy of his great work The Later Roman Empire 284a 602 A Social Economic and Administrative Survey 1964 The Byzantines Averil Cameron, 2009-11-09 Winner of the 2006 John D Criticos Prize This book introduces the reader to the complex history ethnicity and identity of the Byzantines This volume brings Byzantium often misconstrued as a vanished successor to the classical world to the forefront of European history Deconstructs stereotypes surrounding Byzantium Beautifully illustrated with photographs and maps A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology, Update 2004 Kelly DeVries, 2004-12-01 This is the first update of A Cumulative Bibliography of Medieval Military History and Technology which appeared in 2002 It is meant to do two things to present references to works on medieval military history and technology not included in the first volume and to present references to all books and articles published on medieval military history and technology from 2000 to 2002 These references are divided into the same categories as in the first volume and cover a chronological period of the same length from late antiquity to 1648 again in order to present a more complete picture of influences on and from the Middle Ages It also continues to cover the same geographical area as the first volume in essence Europe and the Middle East or again influences on and from this area The languages of these bibliographical references reflect this geography

Religious Diversity in Late Antiquity David Morton Gwynn, Susanne Bangert, 2010 This volume in the ongoing Late Antique Archaeology series draws on material and textual evidence to explore the diverse religious world of Late Antiquity Subjects include Jews and Samaritans orthodoxy and heresy pilgrimage stylites magic the sacred and the secular

Transmitting and Circulating the Late Antique and Byzantine Worlds, 2019-10-29 Transmitting and Circulating the Late Antique and Byzantine Worlds seeks to be a crucial contribution to the history of medieval connectedness Using one of the methodological tools associated with the global history movement this volume aims to use connectedness to revitalise local and regional networks of exchange and movement Its case studies collectively point caution toward assuming or asserting global scale transmission of meaning or items unchanged and show instead how meaning is locally produced and regionally formulated and how this is no less dynamic than any global level connectedness These case studies by early career scholars range from the movement of cotton growing practices to the transmission of information within individual texts Their wide scope however is nonetheless united by their preoccupation with transmission and circulation as categories of analysing or explaining movement and change in history This volume hopes to be therefore a useful contribution to the growing field of a history of connectivity and connectedness Contributors are Jovana Anelković Petar Bara Mathew Barber Julia Burdajewicz Adele Curness Carl Dixon Alex MacFarlane Anna Kelley Matteo G Randazzo Katinka Sewing and Grace Stafford See inside the book

Heirs of Roman Persecution Éric Fournier, Wendy Mayer, 2019-10-10 The subject of this book is the discourse of persecution used by Christians in Late Antiquity c 300 700 CE Through a series of detailed case studies covering the full chronological and geographical span of the period this book investigates how the conversion of the Roman Empire to Christianity changed the way that Christians and para Christians perceived the hostile treatments they received either by fellow Christians or by people of other religions A closely related second goal of this volume is to encourage scholars to think more precisely about the terminological difficulties related to the study of persecution Indeed despite sustained interest in the subject few scholars have sought to distinguish between such closely related concepts as punishment coercion physical violence and persecution Often these terms are used interchangeably Although there are no easy answers an emphatic conclusion of the studies assembled in this volume is that persecution was a malleable rhetorical label in late antique discourse whose meaning shifted depending on the viewpoint of the authors who used it This leads to our third objective to analyze the role and function played by rhetoric and polemic in late antique claims to be persecuted Late antique Christian writers who cast their present as a repetition of past persecutions often aimed to attack the legitimacy of the dominant Christian faction through a process of othering This discourse also expressed a polarizing worldview in order to strengthen the group identity of the writers community in the midst of ideological conflicts and to encourage steadfastness against the temptation to collaborate with the other side Chapters 15 and 16 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
