Serbia (1844-1867): Ilija Garašanin's Načertanije Dušan T. Bataković,2014 Contemporary analysis of Serbia s foreign policy in the middle of the nineteenth century has remained in a deep shadow of the Na čertanije a document conceived in 1844 in Belgrade as a result of collaboration between Serbia s interior minister Ilija Gara anin and F A Zach the representative of the Polish political emigration from Paris led by Prince A Czartoryski in the capital of the autonomous Principality of Serbia Prince Czartoryski author of Councils for Serbia s foreign policy in 1843 considered Serbia the sole semi independent state among Slavs in South Eastern Europe a nucleus of a wider Serbia led South Slav state that might endorse an anti Russian and anti Austrian policy as a support for his wider plans regarding the restoration of independent Poland The over ambitious pan Slav project of F Zach Serbia s Slavic Policy was eventually modified by Gara anin to a more realistic and attainable plan in accordance with Serbia s modest demographic and military potential limited international experience and still humble administrative capacities Planning the unification of the predominantly Serb inhabited lands under Ottoman rule was appropriately adapted to the geopolitical realities of 1844 The foreign policy of Serbia under Gara anin during the rule of the pro Austrian Prince Alexander Karadjordjevi and Gara anin s premiership under Russophile Prince Michael Obrenovi was balancing between various political options that were dominating Europe and the Balkans between the 1848 Revolution and the Crimean War and the first Balkan Alliance Gara anin was continuously prudent and bold in pursuing realistic political ambitions regarding large scale anti Ottoman activities by building a network of confidants and agents throughout Turkey in Europe that was to form a joint insurrection against the Ottoman rule During its last phase Gara anin s foreign policy gradually evolved into the direction of closer Yugoslav and Balkan cooperation Back cover      The Queens of England and Their Times Francis Lancelott,1894
