The Eye And I Story:

The Eye and I Lee Wardlaw, 1988 Jeffrey's fear of the electronic eye of the video camera nearly paralyzes him when he discovers he must make a filmed speech before his fifth grade class but then he comes up with a sensational idea The Eye and the Mind C. Landesman, 1993-10-31 This book is a discussion of some of the major philosophical problems centering around the topic of sense perception and the foundations of human knowledge It begins with a characterization of our common sense understanding of the role of the senses in the acquisition of belief and it argues that scientific accounts of the processes of perception undermine salient parts of this understanding The naive point of view of direct realism cannot be sustained in the light of a scientifically instructed understanding of perception This critique of direct realism points to the correctness of the representative theory of perception characteristic of such early modern philosophers as Descartes and Locke and it also endorses the subjectivism that they defended It argues that these positions do not require introducing sense data into the picture and thus it avoids the intractable problems that the sense datum philosophy introduces In addition several versions of cognitive accounts of sense perception are criticized with the result that it is unnecessary to characterize sensory processes in intentional terms The book then turns to a leading question introduced into modern philosophy by Descartes and Locke the question of the accuracy of the information delivered by the senses to our faculty of belief In particular how accurate are our representations of the secondary qualities The case of color is considered in detail

The Eye of the Law Michael Stolleis, 2008-09-25 Written by the eminent German legal historian Michael Stolleis these two Essays on Legal History offer an original and compelling history of the symbolism through which law is characterised as being above us In The Eye of the Law the history of this metaphor is followed from antiquity through to the present day from the Greek Eye of Justice the eye of the impartial judge of the Underworld the Eye of God watching past present and future the Eye of the Prince guiding his subjects to the almighty Eye of the Law While our belief in the law may have become brittle nothing escapes what is now the Eye of Big Brother In the Name of the Law takes up the various formulas used to legitimate the decisions of the courts from the times of absolutism over the 19th century until today The speaker who speaks in the name of a higher being underlines his function his authority comes from above And it is in the name of god king people state nation or law that a weak earthly justice receives its support Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10-01 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques

Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes s writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

The Eye Of The Spirit Allen Haas,2006-06 With the purchase of a venerable scroll from double crossing Arabian bandits nearly complete Max William York the adventurous director of a New York consulting firm will have to use all of his knowledge to escape with aged parchment and his life Back cover In the Eye of the Animal Patricia Cox Miller,2018-06-15 Early Christian theology posited a strict division between animals and humans Nevertheless animal figures abound in early Christian literature and art from Augustine s renowned wonder at the agility of the mosquito on the wing to vivid exegeses of the six days of creation detailed in Genesis and when they appear the distinctions between human and animal are often dissolved How asks Patricia Cox Miller does one account for the stunning zoological imagination found in a wide variety of genres of ancient Christian texts In the Eye of the Animal complicates the role of animals in early Christian thought by showing how textual and artistic images and interpretive procedures actually celebrated a continuum of human and animal life Synthesizing early Christian studies contemporary philosophy animal studies ethology and modern poetry Miller identifies two contradictory strands in early Christian thinking about animals The dominant thread viewed the body and soul of the human being as dominical or the crowning achievement of creation animals with their defective souls related to humans only as reminders of the brutish physical form However the second strand relied upon the idea of a continuum of animal life which enabled comparisons between animals and humans This second tendency explains Miller arises particularly in early Christian literature in which ascetic identity the body and ethics intersect She explores the tension between these modes by tracing the image of the animal in early Christian literature from the ethical animal behavior on display in Basil of Caesarea s Hexaemeron and the anonymous Physiologus to the role of animals in articulating erotic desire and from the idyllic intimacy of monks and animals in literature of desert ascetism to early Christian art that envisions paradise through human animal symbiosis Surrealism, Feminism, Psychoanalysis Natalya Lusty,2007-01-01 Combining historical and cultural methods of analysis with sophisticated theoretical discussions Natalya Lusty explores how women artists and intellectuals responded to the appropriation of the feminine in Surrealism and psychoanalysis Reading work by The Eyes of Bats Hubert E. Devine,2024-02-22 Will Alexander is on a journey of the heart and soul searching for something elusive something missing from his life something obscured by the chaotic circumstances of his life and the mists of uncertainty Blind to obvious truths he is unable to see clearly what that elusive something is or where it may be found He is on a perilous odyssey cast toward an unknown destiny at the mercy of fate and chance Having dropped out of university he is an unlikely member of the Dark Angels an outlaw motorcycle club in Halifax Nova Scotia Contending with violence in the streets and at home and in conflict with the law he is driven ultimately to a decision an inflection point that will define the remainder of his life Twenty years later the nature and direction of his journey begin to come into sharper resolution He comes to see what he must do to find what has been missing over most of his lifetime to fill the void in his life and finally give it a completeness he did not fully comprehend it lacked This takes him from Nova Scotia to the other side of the world An expansive spellbinding tale of generational mythology the mysterious dance of fate and chance and the circumstances and decisions that shape us The Eyes of Bats concludes the multi generational family saga begun by the author in his novel All the Stars in the Sky These two novels give voice to themes of tragedy struggle hope redemption and triumph A Gray Eye Or So Frank Frankfort Moore,1894
