The Eye Of Innocence Children And Their Poetry:

The Eye of Innocence Robert Druce, 1970      The Anatomy of Poetry (Routledge Revivals) Marjorie Boulton, 2014-06-17 It is impossible to appreciate poetry fully without some knowledge of the various aspects of poetic technique First published in 1953 with a second edition in 1982 this title explains all the usual technical terms in an accessible manner Marjorie Boulton shows that it is possible to approach a poem from a business like perspective without losing enjoyment This reissue will be of particular value to students as well as those with a general interest in the specifics of poetry      Shades of Empire in Colonial and Post-Colonial Literatures , 2021-11-01 The scope of the articles in Shades of Empire in Colonial and Post Colonial Literatures which are arranged in a broad sweep from East to West with four short papers nestled in the middle on the theme of colonialism and motherhood is extensive and varied But in one way or another they all reflect the growing importance of literatures and cultures that might once have been regarded as marginal During the colonial period the literature of the centre took possession of the margin as well as of the imagination of the margin But only recently has the question been raised as to why traditional English literary history has paid so little attention to colonial literature Now post colonial literatures are writing themselves back into the centre and what used to be the margins of the English language world have now set themselves up as rival centres An interesting question to arise from this is whether in the process the former colonial or colonizing literature has now itself turned into a post colonial literature What this book affirms is the importance and interest of a wide variety of literatures sharing a language but reflecting a rich and provocative diversity of histories experiences and attitudes to the shared world which still also divides us      Teaching English Don Gutteridge, 2000 Donald Gutteridge describes the unique way we read poetry and fiction and offers concrete ideas about how English can be best taught in schools He argues that students should read literature in the same spirit in which it is written aesthetically Similarly students should be encouraged to create their own stories and poems through a poetic writing process Teaching English presents six aesthetics based principles for teaching literature and includes sample lesson plans and annotated lists of resources Drawing on recent work in psycho linguistics rhetoric an learning theory Teaching English offers a refreshing method for bringing students closer to the English language      Babylon or New Jerusalem? , 2016-08-29 Today more than ever literature and the other arts make use of urban structures it is in the city that the global and universal joins the local and individual Babylon or New Jerusalem Perceptions of the City in Literature draws a map of the concept of the city in literature and represents the major issues involved Contributions to the volume revisit cities such as the London of Wordsworth Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf or Rilke s Paris but also travel to the politics of power in Renaissance theatre at Ferrara and to deliberate urban erasures in post apartheid South Africa The texts represented range from Renaissance plays to contemporary novels and to poetry from various periods with references to the visual arts including film The role of memory in contemplating the city and also specific urban metaphors developed in literature such as boxing the square ring and jazz are also discussed The transformation of cities by legislation on cemeteries by lighting or by projects of urban renewal are the subject of articles while others reflect on images of the city in worlds specifically forged by writers like William Blake and James Thomson The contributors themselves live and work in many varied cities thus representing a dynamic and real variety of critical approaches and introducing a strong theoretical and comparative element

"A Natural Delineation of Human Passions" ,2016-08-09 Most of the articles in A Natural Delineation of Human Passions originated in the Twelfth October Conference held in Leiden to celebrate the bicentenary of the publication of Lyrical Ballads The first article by the editor An Historic Moment A Natural Delineation of Human Passions as a New Morality attempts to establish an historic and an historical context both personal and political for the six articles that follow by ke Bergvall Myra Cottingham C P Seabrook Wilkinson James McGonigal Jacqueline Schoemaker and Suzanne E Webster which consider the themes of vagrancy and wandering in Lyrical Ballads the expression of loss and compensation and the consequences both beneficial and perilous for the language and rhetoric of poetry Then three articles by Annemarie Estor Daniel Sanjiv Roberts and Paul E A van Gestel consider the ambience of science and philosophy in which Wordsworth and Coleridge strove to affirm the creative participation of poetry After this Jacqueline M Labbe Titus P Bicknell Robert Druce and M Van Wyk Smith discuss the parallel contributions of some of the more neglected contemporaries of the authors of Lyrical Ballads not necessarily in English nor necessarily in England Mary Robinson Walter Savage Landor Robert Bloomfield and Thomas Pringle The volume concludes with an extended examination by Timothy Webb of the responses both admiring and scornful of the younger generation of Romantics to the legacy of Lyrical Ballads

The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing ,2021-11-22 The sixteen articles in The Rhetoric of Canadian Writing are a welcome contribution to the growing interest in Canadian culture indicating its variety Aboriginal Anglo Canadian and French Canadian culture and their interrelationships are all represented In classical oratory the term rhetoric signifies the art of influencing the thought and conduct of readers and listeners and this concept is used as an underlying current of debate in this volume Contributors address the theme of identity and post colonial disputation in their explorations of eighteenth and nineteenth century writing by Elizabeth Simcoe Catharine Parr Traill and Lucy Montgomery as well as contemporary works by Margaret Atwood Nancy Huston Wayne Johnston Susan Swan Jacques Poulin and Rudy Wiebe Quebecoise writer Louis Dupr contributes a compelling reflection on women s writing in Quebec

The Literature of Education W. Kenneth Richmond,2019-01-15 Original blurb The volume of writing on educational topics has increased so prodigiously in recent years that the student is likely to lose himself in a sea of print This may lead him to opt for the first book that comes to hand or waste time rifling through half a dozen when a thorough grasp of one key text is all that is needed Reading lists commonly look impressive not to say daunting In fact the multifarious titles conceal an enormous amount of duplication an endless raking over of other people s research findings It is a safe bet writes W Kenneth Richmond that less than 5 percent of the contents of any new book on education will be in any way original This critical bibliography originally published in 1972 is concerned with the noteworthy books and major official reports that had appeared in the English language during the twenty five years prior to publication In his introduction and in the commentaries prefacing each section the author explains the background to the genuinely new departures of the period and describes successive changes in the climate of educational opinion The Teaching Revolution W. Kenneth Richmond, 2018-12-20 Originally published in 1967 education had entered a period of fundamental change The developments described in this book team teaching audio visual aids programmed learning curriculum reform projects and the like had tended to progress in isolation from each other and only recently had it been realized how much they had in common Today it can be read and enjoyed in its historical context Tropes of Revolution , 2021-11-15 Centennial Hauntings , 2022-10-04 The Eye of Innocence. Children and Their Poetry. With a Postscript by James Britton Robert Druce, 1965 Beyond Pug's Tour , 2022-06-08 At a time when the world Europe especially is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes What role do such stereotypes have in literature How are they created From what materials are they constructed What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve Can it ever be a useful one Are they avoidable Can we live without them What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce Stereotyping is worldwide is there a tribe race and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours In what sense are these stereotypes accurate How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature Should and can literature do anything about them In Beyond Pug's Tour National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part Exhibited by Candlelight , 2022-05-20 Exhibited by Candlelight Sources and Developments in the Gothic Tradition focuses on a number of strands in the Gothic The first is Gothic as a way of looking Paintings used as reference points tableaux or the Hammer Studios visualizations of Dracula present ways of seeing which are suggestive and allow the interplay of primarily sexual passions Continuity with the past is a further strand which enables us to explore how the sources of the Gothic are connected with the origin of existence and of history both individual and general Here the Gothic offers a voice for writers whose perceptions do not fit into those of the dominant group which makes them sensitive both to psychological and social gaps This leads to an exploration of the very idea of sources and an attempt to bridge the gaps as can be observed in the variety of epithets used to clarify the ways that Gothic works ranging from heroic gothic to porno gothic This takes the reader to the main core of Gothic a genre which is always ready to admit new forms of the unreal to enter and change whatever has become mainstream literature and a way of reading and a mode profoundly affecting the reading experience The Gothic mode cultivates its wicked ways in literature working through it as a leavening yeast      Oriental Prospects ,2022-07-04 A great deal of stimulating and valuable discussion as well as some indignation and hot air has been stimulated by Edward Said whose provocative study of Orientalism Western Conceptions of the Orient appeared twenty years ago This present book will we believe be recognized as a worthy addition to the many attempts that have since been made to sift the intrinsic and ingrained attitudes of West to East The fifteen articles in Oriental Prospects Western Literature and the Lure of the East cover literature from the Renaissance through the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries to the modern period some in pragmatic accounts of responses to and uses of experiences of the Orient and its cultural attitudes and artefacts others contending more theoretically with issues that Edward Said has raised Despite all the misunderstanding prejudice and propaganda in the scholarly and literary depiction of the Orient still today as in the past what emerges from this wide range of articles is that no species of literary text or academic study can appear without risking the accusation of escapist exoticism or cultural and economic exploitation and thus regrettably masking the essential and vital significance of the political and the real and imaginative trading between East and West      General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1968      The Teaching of English in Schools David Shayer,2013-04-15 Originally published in 1972 1900 1970 saw extensive changes in the teaching of English in schools The volume studies English instruction as it developed at junior and secondary level over this period Using textbooks method books Board and Ministry Reports and other contemporary opinion the book examines the basic questions arising from this historical survey Whilst the main emphasis is on changes in actual classroom methods the volume also examines the wider social pressures which have modified the school system in the UK as well as English as a subject in that system      The Spectator ,1907      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1969      The Nineteenth Century and After ,1908
