The Fabric Of Love:

The Fabric of Love Danielle Reid, 2009-06 The Fabric of Love is a compilation of six memorable short stories and three poems by author Danielle Reid. Although the surprise conclusions are unique to the author's life, the stories reflect experiences and memories shared across cultures and generations.

Love to Sew Debbie Shore, 2015-10-15 Best selling sewing author Debbie Shore has designed eighteen gorgeous quilted projects that sewers of all abilities will want to make. She begins by introducing basic quilting binding and applique techniques as well as detailing the materials needed. There are cosies to keep things warm and covers to protect and enhance valuables such as tablets and phones. The projects range from the more traditional egg cosies mug hug and tea and coffee cosies to covers for a toaster sewing machine bottle tissue box chair back and more. Clear step photographs are provided where needed and there are beautiful styled shots of the finished pieces. All templates are provided.

No-Sew Love Ashley Johnston, 2014-08-05 Although Ashley Johnston is comfortable with a needle and thread and really enjoys making handmade items for her children and home, she could certainly understand that sewing machines can strike fear and dread into the hearts of many crafters. The complicated machinery with the fussy parts as well as confusing pattern directions send many people running from any craft that requires sewing. No Sew Love is filled with ideas for the non sewing crafter or for the more casual sewist who would rather not haul out the sewing machine for a quick project. Materials all easily found at craft and fabric stores: hem tape fusible webbing a variety of glues and of course fabric are all you need to whip up the 50 no sew wonders in the book. There are throw pillows grommet curtain panels cute kids clothing holiday decorations and even accessories for you. Projects are photographed at each step for crystal clear directions and sure to please results.

Love and Saint Augustine Hannah Arendt,2014-12-10 The brilliant thinker who taught us about the banality of evil explores another brilliant thinker and his concept of love Hannah Arendt the author of The Origins of Totalitarianism and The Human Condition began her scholarly career with an exploration of Saint Augustine s concept of caritas or neighborly love written under the direction of Karl Jaspers and the influence of Martin Heidegger After her German academic life came to a halt in 1933 Arendt carried her dissertation into exile in France and years later took the same battered and stained copy to New York During the late 1950s and early 1960s as she was completing or reworking her most influential studies of political life Arendt was simultaneously annotating and revising her dissertation on Augustine amplifying its argument with terms and concepts she was using in her political works of the same period The dissertation became a bridge over which Arendt traveled back and forth between 1929 Heidelberg and 1960s New York carrying with her Augustine s question about the possibility of social life in an age of rapid political and moral change In Love and Saint Augustine political science professor Joanna Vecchiarelli Scott and philosophy professor Judith Chelius Stark make this important early work accessible for the first time Here is a completely corrected and revised English translation that incorporates Arendt s own substantial revisions and provides additional notes based on letters contracts and other documents as well as the recollections of Arendt s friends and colleagues during her later years Both the dissertation and the accompanying essay are accessible to informed lay readers Scott and Stark s conclusions about the cohesive evolution of Arendt s thought are compelling but leave room for continuing discussion Library Journal A revelation Kirkus Reviews
