Hell's Destruction Catherine Ella Laufer,2016-04-22 The credal affirmation he descended to the dead has attracted a plethora of views over the centuries and many Christians today struggle to explain the meaning of these words This book explores various interpretations of the doctrine of Christ s descent to the dead both within particular historical contexts and within contemporary theology Laufer argues that the descensus clause Christ s descent is integral to Christian faith specifically to the doctrine of the incarnation If we are to affirm that in Christ God became truly human then that affirmation must include his sharing in the state of being dead that is the ultimate consequence of being human Laufer concludes that since the Son has experienced genuine human death and the separation from God which is the essence of hell there is no longer any human condition from which God is absent either in this life or in eternity Christ s descent means that he is truly hell s destruction Drawing on a treasure trove of writings from the western theological tradition including Luther Calvin Maurice Balthasar Moltmann and others and attending to historical theological exegetical philosophical and pastoral issues this book explores an often ignored doctrine which lies at the core of Christian life death and faith

Hell's Kitchen and the Battle for Urban Space Joseph J. Varga,2013-05-01 Hell s Kitchen is among Manhattan s most storied and studied neighborhoods A working class district situated next to the West Side s middle and upper class residential districts it has long attracted the focus of artists and urban planners writers and reformers Now Joseph Varga takes us on a tour of Hell s Kitchen with an eye toward what we usually take for granted space and particularly how urban spaces are produced controlled and contested by different class and political forces Varga examines events and locations in a crucial period in the formation of the Hell s Kitchen neighborhood the Progressive Era and describes how reformers sought to shape the behavior and experiences of its inhabitants by manipulating the built environment But those inhabitants had plans of their own and thus ensued a struggle over the very spaces public and private commercial and personal in which they lived Varga insightfully considers the interactions between human actors the built environment and the natural landscape and suggests how the production of and struggle over space influence what we think and how we live In the process he raises incisive questions about the meaning of community citizenship and democracy itself

The Qur'an and the Aesthetics of Premodern Arabic Prose Sarah R. bin Tyeer, 2016-09-10 This book approaches the Qur'an as a primary source for delineating the definition of ugliness and by extension beauty and in turn establishing meaningful tools and terms for literary criticism within the discipline of classical Arabic literature adab Focusing on the aesthetic dimension of the Qur'an this methodology opens up new horizons for reading adab by reading the tradition from within the tradition and thereby examining issues of decontextualisation and the untranslatable This approach in turn invites Comparatists as well as Arabists to consider other means and perspectives for approaching adab besides the Bakhtinian carnival Applying this critical strategy to literary works as diverse as One Thousand and One Nights and The Epistle of Forgiveness Sarah R bin Tyeer aims to prove two major points how Bakhtin's aesthetics is anachronistic and therefore theoretically inappropriate when applied to certain literary works and how ultimately this literary methodology is sometimes used as a proxy for ungrounded and sometimes unfair arguments by other scholars Foreword by Angelika Neuwirth Professor of Quranic studies Freie University Berlin Germany
