Forecasting Travel in Urban America Konstantinos Chatzis,2023-07-11 A history of urban travel demand modeling UTM and its enormous influence on American life from the 1920s to the present For better and worse the automobile has been an integral part of the American way of life for decades Its ascendance would have been far less spectacular however had engineers and planners not devised urban travel demand modeling UTM This book tells the story of this irreplaceable engineering tool that has helped cities accommodate continuous rise in traffic from the 1950s on Beginning with UTM s origins as a method to help plan new infrastructure Konstantinos Chatzis follows its trajectory through new generations of models that helped make optimal use of existing capacity and examines related policy instruments including the recent use of intelligent transportation systems Chatzis investigates these models as evolving entities involving humans and nonhumans that were shaped through a specific production process In surveying the various generations of UTDM he delves into various means of production from tabulating machines to software packages and travel survey methods from personal interviews to GPS tracking devices and smartphones used to obtain critical information He also looks at the individuals who have collectively built a distinct UTDM social world by displaying specialized knowledge developing specific skills and performing various tasks and functions and by communicating interacting and even competing with one another Original and refreshingly accessible Forecasting Travel in Urban America offers the first detailed history behind the thinkers and processes that impact the lives of millions of city dwellers every day

Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen, Jennifer Blair, 2015-06-18 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book's three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism

Necessary Travel Susan Hodgett, Patrick James, 2018-12-03 Recent unpredictable incidents in diverse locations Paris Nice Ankara Sinai California Manchester and London reinforce how governments and scholars must look beneath the surface for understanding of the turbulent post 9 11 world In particular what does expertise mean in this new era This book answers that question The volume is about a particular kind of expert a type suffering from bad press for a long time namely scholars who carry out area based research The term expert itself even comes in for some humor about how it might be defined someone who knows more and more about less and less until eventually they know everything about nothing Behind the old joke is a grain of truth Expert standing becomes unimpressive to us in both intellectual and practical terms when it is seen as parochial and lacking in vision This volume will explore Area Studies AS a prominent type of expertise along a range of dimensions As we move towards the third decade in the new millennium attention shifts to the somewhat unexpectedly positive future of NewArea Studies NAS as a resurgent intellectual movement NAS has departed from what the editors have dubbed Traditional Area Studies TAS commonplace till the millennium Both the editors of this volume and its contributors are leading scholars in area based work across continents Together they have participated and observed as area oriented research struggled to overcome protracted and intense criticism since the Cold War Thus the volume marks the resurgence of area based research in its new guise as NAS the crux understanding increasing complexity around a shrinking globe Taken together the contents of this volume make the the case for a New Area Studies grounded in necessary travel using new and wider methodologies involving reflective practice and production of knowledge with local people It argues the necessity of such broad and deep approaches in order to appreciate what is going on in the world in the 21st century and to help us see off the arrival of more and increasingly nasty unpredictable shocks
