Spectacular Rubens Alejandro Vergara, Anne T. Woollett, 2014-10-14 The six glorious scenes that make up the Triumph of the Eucharist series by Peter Paul Rubens 1577 1640 are highlights of the Museo Nacional del Prado's superb collection of Flemish paintings Completed in 1626 these brilliantly detailed sketches were painted at the behest of the Infanta Isabel Clara Eugenia in preparation for a series of monumental tapestries that are now considered among the finest made in Europe in the seventeenth century Unfortunately additions to the wooden supports introduced after the paintings were created made the panels considerably larger than Rubens intended and over time caused serious damage to the original sections With the aid of the Getty Foundation's Panel Paintings Initiative the panels have been restored and returned to their original dimensions by the Prado and the magnificent oil sketches can once again be placed on public view This lushly illustrated and illuminating volume provides new insight into the history of the Eucharist series of paintings and tapestries and attests to Rubens's exhilarating art Spectacular Rubens is published on the occasion of an exhibition of the paintings on view at the Museo Nacional del Prado from March 25 through June 29 2014 and at the J Paul Getty Museum from October 14 2014 through January 4 2015 Corpus Rubenianum Ludwig Burchard, Nora de Porter, 1978 Art Market and

Connoisseurship Anna Tummers, Koenraad Jonckheere, 2008 The question of whether seventeenth century painters such as Rembrandt and Rubens were exclusively responsible for the paintings later sold under their names has caused many a heated debate Despite the rise of scholarship on the history of the art market much is still unknown about the ways in which paintings were produced assessed priced and marketed during this period which leads to several provocative questions did contemporary connoisseurs expect masters such as Rembrandt to paint works entirely by their own hand Who was credited with the ability to assess paintings as genuine The contributors to this engaging collection Eric Jan Sluijter Hans Van Miegroet and Neil De Marchi among them trace these issues through the booming art market of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries arriving at fascinating and occasionally unexpected conclusions Rubens's Spirit Alexander Marr, 2021-03-25 Peter Paul Rubens was the most inventive and prolific northern European artist of his age This book discusses his life and work in relation to three interrelated themes spirit ingenuity and genius It argues that Rubens and his reception were pivotal in the transformation of early modern ingenuity into Romantic genius Ranging across the artist's entire career it explores Rubens's engagement with these themes in his art and life Alexander Marr looks at Rubens's forays into altarpiece painting in Italy as well as his collaborations with fellow artists in his hometown of Antwerp and his complex relationship with the spirit of pleasure It concludes with his late landscapes in connection to genius loci the spirit of the place

Morrill,2023-09-15 The Casa del Deán in Puebla Mexico is one of few surviving sixteenth century residences in the Americas Built in 1580 by Tomás de la Plaza the Dean of the Cathedral the house was decorated with at least three magnificent murals two of which survive Their rediscovery in the 1950s and restoration in 2010 revealed works of art that rival European masterpieces of the early Renaissance while incorporating indigenous elements that identify them with Amerindian visual traditions Extensively illustrated with new color photographs of the murals The Casa del Deán presents a thorough iconographic analysis of the paintings and an enlightening discussion of the relationship between Tomás de la Plaza and the indigenous artists whom he commissioned Penny Morrill skillfully traces how native painters trained by the Franciscans used images from Classical mythology found in Flemish and Italian prints and illustrated books from France as well as animal images and glyphic traditions with pre-Columbian origins to create murals that are reflective of Don Tomás's erudition and his role in evangelizing among the Amerindians She demonstrates how the importance given to rhetoric by both the Spaniards and the Nahuas became a bridge of communication between these two distinct and highly evolved cultures This pioneering study of the Casa del Deán mural cycle adds an important new chapter to the study of colonial Latin American art as it increases our understanding of the process by which imagery in the New World took on Christian meaning The Vexations of Art Svetlana Alpers,2007-01-01 Now available in paperback A major art historian reflects on a great tradition of European painting The Vexations of Art is an engrossing passionate attempt to re engage with painting as a mode of thought at a time when it is not clear in what form the resource of painting for surely painting has been a singular resource of the greater European culture will continue Jackie Wullschlager Financial Times A fascinating book that will surely generate discussion for some time to come Mindy Nancarrow Renaissance Quarterly Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing Catherine H. Lusheck, 2017-08-07 Rubens and the Eloquence of Drawing re examines the early graphic practice of the preeminent northern Baroque painter Peter Paul Rubens Flemish 1577 1640 in light of early modern traditions of eloquence particularly as promoted in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Flemish Neostoic circles of philologist Justus Lipsius 1547 1606 Focusing on the roles that rhetorical and pedagogical considerations played in the artist s approach to disegno during and following his formative Roman period 1600 08 this volume highlights Rubens s high ambitions for the intimate medium of drawing as a primary site for generating meaningful and original ideas for his larger artistic enterprise As in the Lipsian realm of writing personal letters the humanist activity then described as a cognate activity to the practice of drawing a Senecan approach to eclecticism a commitment to emulation and an Aristotelian concern for joining form to content all played important roles Two chapter long studies of individual drawings serve to demonstrate the relevance of these interdisciplinary rhetorical concerns to Rubens s early practice of drawing Focusing on Rubens s Medea Fleeing with Her Dead Children Los Angeles Getty Museum and Kneeling Man Rotterdam Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen these close looking case studies demonstrate Rubens s commitments to creating new models of eloquent drawing and to highlighting his own status as an inimitable maker Demonstrating the force and quality of Rubens s intellect in the medium then most associated with the closest ideas of the artist such designs were arguably created as more robust pedagogical and preparatory models that could help strengthen art itself for a new and often troubled age
