The Eucharistic Memorial Part 2 The New Testament:

A South African Perspective on the New Testament Jacobus H. Petzer, Patrick J. Hartin, 1986 A South African Perspective on the New Testament J. H. Hartin, P. J. Petzer, 2023-10-16 The Eucharist's Biographer Albert J.D. Walsh, 2012-11-06 Christians are not just called to be transformed into something better or even good but to be transfigured into a new creation ceasing to be what they are in order to become what they are not In The Eucharist's Biographer Albert Walsh proposes that the path to this distinctive Christian identity is through the power of the Holy Spirit as revealed in the unity of Word and Sacrament With this premise he unites two powerful traditions the Proclamation of the Word of the Protestant tradition and the Power of God's Grace in the Eucharist of the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox traditions It is in what Walsh calls the eucharistic evangel as a whole that the individual and community are subject to the real presence of the Christ who in the power of the Holy Spirit is the force behind the transformation and maintenance of Christian identity

The Eucharistic Memorial (2 Vols.) Max Thurian, 1962 Bread from Heaven Bernhard Blankenhorn, 2021-08-07 Bread from Heaven offers a contemporary theological synthesis on the Eucharist that brings together classical and critical biblical exegesis debates on the early history of the Christian liturgy patristic doctrine the teachings offered by the Councils of Florence Trent and Vatican II and the Church's lex orandi all within a framework provided by the Eucharistic theology of Thomas Aquinas The volume begins with Christ's Bread of Life discourse in John 6 in light of the Old Testament theme of the manna and the Synoptic accounts of the Last Supper These biblical texts offer solid foundation for a theology of Eucharistic sacrifice presence and Communion It then continues with a historical and systematic study of the institution of the Eucharist by Christ with special attention given to the emergence of the first Eucharistic prayers Then follows a survey of key Christological and ecclesiological themes which undergird Eucharistic theology The chapters on Eucharistic sacrifice and presence form the heart of the work Here the focus moves to key conciliar patristic and Thomistic insights on these themes Bread from Heaven clarifies misunderstandings of Eucharistic sacrifice and renders transubstantiation accessible to beginners Blankenhorn concludes with a study of the consecration the minister of the Eucharist and the fruits of communion The chapter on the debate over the words of institution and the epiclesis gives a fresh perspective that integrates both eastern and western tradition The study of the Eucharistic celebrant strikes a balance between a spirituality of the priest as acting in persona Christi and of the priest as praying in persona ecclesiae The concluding chapter centers on the Eucharist's unitive mystical fruits in the Church This textbook is ideal for an advanced undergraduate or graduate course on Eucharistic theology It also seeks to advance the debate on several controversial historical and speculative issues in sacramental theology

John Calvin, the Church and the Eucharist Kilian McDonnell, 2015-12-08 Calvin's eucharistic doctrine has been approached in the past from the standpoint of his polemic with the Lutherans and the Zwinglians but Father McDonnell believes that Calvin's primary position was determined by his rejection of Roman Catholicism The author therefore explores Calvin's eucharistic doctrine through a comprehensive analysis of his stand against the Roman Catholic Church. Introductory chapters are devoted to the broader currents of pre-Reformation thought: Scotist tradition, devotio moderna, humanism, and the Platonic renewal. The study continues with a discussion of St. Augustine, the medieval disputants, and the doctrines of Calvin's contemporaries, Luther, Bucer, and Melancthon. The final chapter considers the relevancy of Calvin's objections to Catholic eucharistic doctrine and their relation to modern developments in Catholic sacramental thought. Mystery of the Eucharist Hilary Arthur Nixon PhD, 2022-10-07 For Christ did not enter a holy place made by hands, a mere copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us, nor was it that He would offer Himself often as the high priest enters the Holy Place year by year with blood that is not his own. Otherwise He would have needed to suffer often since the foundation of the world, but now once at the consummation of the ages He has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. Hebrews 9:24-25 NASB. Jesus interrupted their Seder meal celebrating Passover. Using unleavened bread and a cup of wine, he instituted the Lord's Supper. Why does the bread represent Christ's body? God passes over the believer's sin because the Lamb of God's body carried our sin. He suffered and died. His body was broken like bread. What represents His death? Life is with the blood. Life ceases when blood stops pouring out of the sacrifice. Wine represents Christ's blood. Wine poured into the cup represents his death. The cup Jesus used probably was a wooden bowl. What cup represents the new covenant? Once a year on the Day of Atonement, the high priest entered the Holy of Holies. With his finger, he sprinkled blood from the bowl onto the mercy seat. Seven times he did this. This ritual shows God's intent to cleanse sin from his people. In the heavenly temple, Jesus, the Christ, cleansed us from sin. By showing His blood, He showed his death on our behalf. The cup is only a tiny piece of the new covenant's inauguration ritual. Yet the cup represents the entire new covenant relationship between God and his people. This figure of speech is a synecdoche where a part represents the whole. It is a specialized form of metonymy.

His Presence in the World Nicholas Langrishe Alleyne Lash, 2005-03-21. Liturgy is at the heart of Christian renewal. But what is at the heart of liturgy? The preoccupation with changing forms of worship over the past few years has tended to obscure what these forms were supposed to liberate Christ living among us The content of the Mass is now becoming familiar to all who participate in it Therefore it is opportune and urgent to develop a theology of the eucharist based upon this content His Presence in the World is a significant contribution to this vital area of theology Dr Lash develops his concept of a dynamic eucharist a living acting Christ in a careful and scholarly manner He builds on tradition and in the spirit of the Vatican Council shows how new theology comes from old and fulfills and clarifies what has always been taught The historical perspective is linked with responsible prophecy to create a relevant theology

The Study of Liturgy Cheslyn Jones, Geoffrey Wainwright, Edward Yarnold, 1978 Completely revised to incorporate new scholarship and many important developments in liturgical renewal this standard text remains an essential tool for students of theology and liturgy It treats the development of the liturgy historically beginning with Jewish antecedents then covering the New Testament Patristic Medieval and Reformation periods and concluding with the increasing interest in liturgy in all churches today The text deals definitively with the five central rites of Christian worship Initiation the Eucharist Ordination the Daily Office and the Calendar A special section on liturgical settings examines in detail the historical importance of music and singing in the liturgy and the role of hymnody in Christian worship Reflecting the continuing trend towards ecumenism the editors represent the Anglican Roman Catholic and Protestant traditions while the Orthodox tradition is represented by the team of contributors which includes many of the best known liturgical scholars

Remembrance, Communion, and Hope J.
