THE EVANGELICAL FAITH Volume 1 (Prolegomena). Helmut THIELICKE,1974      Donald G. Bloesch Paul Maher,2007 Donald G Bloesch is among the most important American theologians of the 20th and early 21st centuries He calls himself a catholic evangelical and indeed his appeal is as wide as those terms imply His work has appeared in Catholic religious periodicals as well as many varieties of Protestant publications both mainstream and lesser known As a prolific author Bloesch s writing is scattered across a large number of journals many of which are difficult to access and reviews of his work appear in an even larger range of forums Donald G Bloesch A Research Bibliography collocates as many relevant resources on Bloesch s writing as possible The book provides a chronological listing and description of each work written by Bloesch as well as reviews of Bloesch s writing Each entry gives the title publication details and notes about the relationship of the item described to other publications Several indexes are also included giving a checklist of books by Bloesch a checklist of books to which Bloesch has contributed and a list of book reviews that Bloesch has written about other authors Finally there is an alphabetical index of titles names and periodicals cited in the bibliography making this the most comprehensive resource available on Bloesch      Evangelical Bible Doctrine Dr. Keith Sherlin,2015-12-10 Over twenty one faithful evangelical Bible teachers have joined together in this work to both honor the legacy of Dr Mal Couch as well as to promote a solid sacred and safe theological manual for the body of Christ Colleagues and friends of Dr Couch such as Dr Wayne House Dr Norman Geisler Dr Arnold Fruchtenbaum Dr Timothy Demy and more along with many of Mals students and disciples set forth in this work a biblical and practical theology The first half of the book covers all twelve of the major biblical doctrines of Christianity The last half covers some of the hottest theological topics and practical issues that present day believers ought to be aware of in order to properly defend the faith In chapter 25 you will meet many of the disciples in Christ that Mal taught over the years as they express their gratitude for this godly giant of the faith So if you are curious about what a holistic evangelical faith looks like and even curious as to how dispensationalism fits within orthodox evangelicalism this book will provide for you a solid resource for many years to come      A Guide to Contemporary Hermeneutics Donald K. McKim,1999-05-25 Acknowledging that hermeneutics has become an increasingly important major focus in theological study Donald McKim s A Guide to Contemporary Hermeneutics presents a series of essays by various writers assessing current hermeneutical approaches and methods of biblical hermeneutics from their own personal experience      The ^ATestimony of the Spirit R. Douglas Geivett,Paul K. Moser,2017-04-03 The theme of the testimony of the Spirit of God has received inadequate attention in recent publications This book corrects that inadequacy with new essays from an interdisciplinary perspective including theology Biblical studies philosophy of religion ethics psychology aesthetics and apologetics      God, Freedom, and the Body of Christ Alexander J. D. Irving,2020-10-13 A contribution to the end of the Church knowing itself as the body of Christ Irving articulates a theology of the Church as that which participates in all that Jesus is in his vicarious humanity by the power of the Spirit This is developed through a dialogical or covenantal frame that has its focal point in Christ in whom the faithful love of God toward creation and the faithful love of creation toward God is actualized The Church as the body of Christ participates in the mediatorial work of Jesus Christ Each chapter explores a different element of this participatory ecclesiology This book offers a constructive ecclesiology built from the ground up on the foundation of a dialogical perspective which has participation in Christ as its controlling center This foundation provides the basis upon which an exhilarating vision of the Church can be built to encourage Christians to cherish the Church as the body of Christ which participates in the triune communion through being included into the Son by the power of the Spirit and comes to reflect the triune God in its own structures Evangelical Theology Michael F.

Bird,2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure Systematic Theology : Volume 1: The Triune God Minnesota Robert W. Jenson Director Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theory,1997-06-24 The Triune God together with the forthcoming second volume The Works of God develops a compendious statement of Christian theology in the tradition of a medieval summa or of such modern works as those of Schleiermacher and Barth Theology as it is understood here is the Christian church's continuing discourse concerning her specific communal purpose it is the hermeneutic and critical reflection internal to the church's task of speaking the gospel to the world as message and to God in petition and praise This volume and its successor are thus dedicated to the service of the one church of the creeds it is for no particular denomination or confession The interlocutors of this work's analyses and proposals are drawn from wherever in the ecumenical tradition a question may lead to theologians and traditions ancient medieval or modern Eastern or Western Catholic or Protestant

Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green,David I. Starling,2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July

2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist s words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth

The J. H. Bavinck Reader Johan Herman Bavinck, 2013-06-03 Crucial themes and issues explored by a premier missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck 1895 1964 was a prominent twentieth century Dutch Calvinist missiologist who wrestled with the tension between religious absolutism and relativism as many Christians do in today s pluralistic context The J H Bavinck Reader gathers together a choice selection of Bavinck s significant writings that are essential for understanding his theology of missions his approach to world religions and his religious psychology His treatment of religious consciousness and Christian faith expands on the brief treatment of it in his own work The Church Between Temple and Mosque The concluding chapters show how Bavinck s theoretical reflection on religious consciousness was rooted in his close observation during his years as a missionary in Indonesia Offering a constructive way forward Bavinck affirms both the particularity of salvation in Christ and the universality of the Christian hope A substantial introduction enhances the book with the most thorough biographical sketch of Bavinck available

In the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Thomas K. Johnson, David Parker, Thomas Schirrmacher, 2020-12-16 Our six authors from four continents representing several branches of Evangelicalism are united in affirming the classical Christian understanding of God as Trinity as crucial for knowing God understanding the world and serving God honestly Their essays lead up to a compilation of classical creeds regarding this foundational proclamation Thomas K Johnson The Trinity is a matter of knowing God in his complexity totally different from us in our singularity yet radically similar in having personality in his image then letting this knowledge of God become the pattern of a renewed Christian mind Brian Edgar This presentation of the consummate dimensions of the Trinity tells us that the life of God as Trinity is something in which we participate rather than something to be intellectually comprehended J Scott Horrell The suggestion humbly submitted is especially for a missional Trinitarian worldview not missional as from one culture to another but missional as each body of believers seeks to engage and express Trinitarian faith within their own culture William P Atkinson As the Father s kenotic leadership of the Trinity thereby exalts the Son and the Spirit so too we can expect that the sort of servant leadership that answers Jesus high priestly prayer will lift those who are being led Pavel Ho ek The Enlightenment reductionist rationalism in theology is going through a serious crisis and the relativistic postmodern alternatives do not provide any firm epistemological basis for responsible theological thinking I suggest that the trinitarian intellectual framework which Comenius and Lewis tried to develop offers a promising and inspiring way forward for Christian theologians faithful to the orthodox teachings of the church who are struggling with the intellectual challenges of contemporary culture

Tersur Aben The Trinity is the heart of God's self disclosure to and involvement with humans on earth The mission of the church is thus to proclaim the gospel of salvation and the restoration of humans back to God which the Son accomplished on Calvary and the Holy Spirit applies to believers on Pentecost

The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth-century Christian Thought Joel D. S. Rasmussen, Judith E. Wolfe, Johannes Zachhuber, 2017 This Handbook considers Christian thought in the long nineteenth century from the French Revolution to the First World War encompassing not only doctrine and theology but also Christianity's mutual influence on literature and the arts political and economic thought and the natural and social sciences

The Making of Stanley Hauerwas David B.

Hunsicker, 2019-09-10 Stanley Hauerwas is often associated with the postliberal theological movement yet he also claims to stand within Karl Barth's theological tradition Which is true Theologian David Hunsicker offers a reevaluation of Hauerwas's theology arguing that he is both a postliberal and a Barthian theologian helping us understand both the formation and the ongoing significance of one of America's great theologians

Gospel-Centered Hermeneutics Graeme

Goldsworthy, 2014-06-18 In this new paperback version Graeme Goldsworthy examines the foundations and presuppositions of evangelical belief as it applies to the interpretation of the Bible He then proposes an evangelical hermeneutic rightly centered in the gospel

The Culture of Interpretation Roger Lundin, 1993 This book offers a broad ranging account of contemporary American culture the complex network of symbols practices and beliefs at the heart of our society Lundin explores the historical background of some of our postmodern culture's central beliefs and considers their crucial ethical and theological implications theology strives to be evangelical conservative and contemporary In a world in which everyone is Christian evangelical theology provides a balanced position between fundamentalism and liberalism While theological debates within the family will occur to be evangelical is a breath of fresh air for many However we do not live in such a world We do find ourselves living in a secular global society It is secular because no religious organization dictates how we live our lives It is global for at least two reasons First our technology brings us immediately in contact with those faraway places Second and of more importance we can simply step outside our front doors and encounter our neighborhoods that reflect a global pluralism This raises the question how shall we then live The intent of An Evangelical Theology of Religions is to suggest a direction for evangelicals to think about the secular global society in which they live in a way that is not only conservative but also evangelical and contemporary The final essay strives to address the evangelical aspect of our tradition that places an emphasis on the Great Commission and the law of love     The First Step in Missions Training Thomas K.

Johnson,2018-04-06 A stimulating discussion of the problems of general revelation particularly designed for those engaged in the missionary task Dr John Warwick Montgomery Professor Emeritus University of Bedfordshire England This is a significant book on one of the most important subjects confronting Christians today How to bring the biblical message to a world that thinks this message is meaningless or dangerous Thomas Johnson s exposition of Romans 1 2 is a highly needed resource on general revelation clearly written eye opening compelling I recommend this book most strongly Ron Kubsch Lecturer in Apologetics and Contemporary Theology Martin Bucer European School of Theology and Research Institutes Thomas K Johnson received his Ph D in ethics from the University of Iowa 1987 after a research fellowship at Eberhard Karls Universitat Tu bingen He received a Master of Divinity Magna Cum Laude from Covenant Theological Seminary St Louis 1981 and a BA from Hope College Michigan 1977 After serving as a church planter in the Presbyterian Church in America he became a visiting professor of philosophy at the European Humanities University in Minsk Belarus 1994 1996 EHU is a dissident anti Communist university forced into exile by the Belarusian dictator in 2004 Since 1996 he and his wife have lived in Prague where he taught philosophy at Anglo American University 4 years and at Charles University 8 years He is now Vice President for Research Martin Bucer European School of Theology and Research Institutes Academic Council International Institute for Religious Freedom WEA Professor of Philosophy Global Scholars and Senior Advisor to the Theological Commission of the World Evangelical Alliance His wife Leslie P Johnson is director of the Christian International School of Prague     Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology: German Protestant theology Jon Bartley Stewart,2012 Tome I is dedicated to the reception of Kierkegaard among German Protestant theologians and religious thinkers The writings of some of these figures turned out to be instrumental for Kierkegaard s breakthrough internationally shortly after the turn of the twentieth century Leading figures of the movement of dialectical theology such as Karl Barth Emil Brunner Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann spawned a steadily growing awareness of and interest in Kierkegaard s thought among generations of German theology students Emanuel Hirsch was greatly influenced by Kierkegaard and proved instrumental in disseminating his thought by producing the first complete German edition of Kierkegaard s published works Both Barth and Hirsch established unique ways of reading and appropriating Kierkegaard which to a certain degree determined the direction and course of Kierkegaard studies right up to our own times

Divine Agency and Divine Action, Volume III William J. Abraham,2018-10-25 Volume III of a tetralogy devoted to Divine Agency and Divine Action articulates a comprehensive vision of systematic theology focused on divine action from creation to eschatology Volume I developed the foundational conceptual work by showing that the concept of action is a radically open concept that readily makes possible the appropriation of divine action for today Volume II explained that in exploring divine action one needs to specify the actual divine actions under review and thus showed that there could be no progress with extensive soundings across the tradition from Paul to Molina Work on divine action requires extended work in doctrinal criticism rooted in the history of theology as a prelude to normative work that communicates a normative vision of divine action for today This vision is best explored by taking up the great themes of systematic theology from creation to eschatology yet treating them in a deflationary manner that sees systematic theology as university level postbaptismal Christian instruction Leading scholar William J Abraham recognises that we live in a golden period of theological studies the range and depth of material is extraordinary yet we also live in a period of disorientation and confusion that calls for a fresh engagement with the demands of systematic theology Divine Agency and Divine Action Volume III meets that demand by insisting that systematic theology has its own content and modes of inquiry that it belongs intimately to the journey of faith and that it requires authentic academic clarity and rigor It reclaims the rightful place of systematic theology as the center of gravity for theological studies but does so in a manner that makes it available to both the church and to the academy
