The Excitement City Sydney:

City Life Adrian Franklin, 2010-05-31 Cities are more important as cultural entities than their mere function as dormitories and industrial sites Yet the understanding of what makes a city alive and appealing in cultural terms is still hotly contested why are some cities so much more interesting popular and successful than others In this engaging discussion in the text City Life Adrian Franklin takes the reader on a tour of contemporary western cities exploring their historical development and arguing that it is the transformative ritual and performative qualities of successful cities that makes a difference Emphasizing the importance of experience the book represents the fluid complexity of the city as a living space an environment and a posthumanist space of transformation It will be of interest to all those engaging with the difficulties of urban life in sociology human geography tourism and cultural studies departments Changes 1 Teacher's Book Jack C. Richards, Jonathan Hull, Susan Proctor, 1994-09-08 Changes is a three level general English course for adult and young adult learners Changes ensures that students have every opportunity to develop confident communicative ability as well as accuracy in English Australia Miriam Lumb, 2006 Describes the history climate landscape wildlife and people of Australia

People Cities Annie Matan, Peter Newman, 2016-11-15 Over the last 50 years architect Jan Gehl has changed the way that we think about architecture and city planning moving from the Modernist separation of uses to a human scale approach inviting people to use their cities People Cities tells the inside story of how Gehl learned to study urban spaces and implement his people centered approach in car dominated cities It discusses the work theory life and influence of Gehl from the perspective of those who have worked with him in cities across the globe It will inspire anyone who wants to create vibrant human scale cities and understand the ideas and work of the architect who has most influenced urban design

Australasia, Old and New James Grattan Grey, 1901 Sydney Blake Dennis, 1987 It's a Metaphysical World Elena J. Michaels M.Ed, Marion K. Williams, 2011-06-09 Its a Metaphysical World is a collection of over one hundred extraordinary short stories drawn from everyday life Although names locations and incidental details have been changed the salient facts are true Each story deals with some aspect of metaphysical phenomena such as intuition synchronicity astral travel bilocation time warps past lives cell and soul memories healings hauntings miracles and sightings Psychic sightings include everything from angels to ghosts The strangeness of the stories led authors Marion K Williams and Elena J Michaels on a fascinating journey of discovery trying to understand the world they thought they knew All stories offer insights and many challenge conventional scientific and religious beliefs Sydney City Guide , 2006 Tourism and the Branded City Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, John G. Gammack, 2016-02-24 Comparing the major Pacific Rim cities of Sydney Hong Kong and Shanghai this book examines world city branding Whilst all three cities compete on the world s stage for events tourists and investment they are also at the centre of distinct film traditions and their identities are thus strongly connected with a cinematic impression Using an interdisciplinary approach this book not only analyses the city branding of these cities from the more widely researched perspectives of tourism marketing and regional development but also draws in cultural studies and psychology approaches which offer fresh and useful insights to place branding and marketing in general The authors compare and contrast qualitative and quantitative original data as well as critically analyzing current texts and debates on city branding In conclusion they argue that city branding should contribute not only to regional development and identity but also to sustainable economic well being and public happiness Uncertainty and Emotion in the 1900 Sydney Plague

Philippa Nicole Barr,2024-04-11 When the third global plague pandemic reached Sydney in 1900 theories regarding the ecology and biology of disease transmission were transforming Changing understandings led to conflicts over the appropriate response Medical and government authorities employed symbols like dirt to address gaps in knowledge They used these symbols strategically to compel emotional responses and to advocate for specific political and social interventions authorising institutional actions to shape social identity and the city in preparation for Australia s 1901 Federation Through theoretical and historical analysis this Element argues that disgust and aversion were effectively mobilised to legitimise these actions As an intervention in contemporary debates about the impact of knowledge on emotion and affect it presents a case for the plasticity of emotions like disgust and for how both emotion and affect can change with new medical information Excel
