The Expanded Campus Current Issues In Higher Education:

The Expanded Campus American Association for Higher Education, 1972 About higher education in the United States in 1972 Power and Empowerment in Higher Education D. B. Robertson, 2014-07-15 The tangled relationship of power and higher education is a fascinating one Where power centers arise on campus they influence and are influenced by sources of power outside Students faculty and administration compete for authority within the academic community citizens whose education has placed them in a position to obtain social political and economic power outside the university walls frequently use it in a way that deeply affects the direction and nature of academic development This collection of thought provoking essays is dedicated to Professor Louis Smith who has long been a student of higher education in this country and abroad Considering matters as varied as the place of the department head in the academic hierarchy and the image of political leadership promulgated by the academic world distinguished scholars present here a rich harvest of insights on a significant topic Planning For Higher Education Allan O. Pfnister, 2019-06-10 This book focuses on some of the last decade s more significant writing about developments in higher education planning organizing the wide ranging commentaries and studies to show the administrator the faculty member and the informed layman what the current status of higher education appears to be Current Issues in Higher Education , 1950 Consists of the proceedings and other reports and papers from the 1st National Conference on Higher Education 1946 1983 84 University Expansion in a Changing Global Economy Martin Carnoy, Prashant Loyalka, Maria Dobryakova, Rafiq Dossani, Isak Froumin, Katherine Kuhns, Jandhyala Tilak, Rong Wang, 2013-07-17 This is a study of higher education in the world s four largest developing economies Brazil Russia India and China Already important players globally by mid century they are likely to be economic powerhouses But whether they reach that level of development will depend in part on how successfully they create quality higher education that puts their labor forces at the cutting edge of the information society Using an empirical comparative approach this book develops a broad picture of the higher education system in each country in the context of both global and local forces The authors offer insights into how differing socioeconomic and historic patterns of change and political contexts influence developments in higher education In asking why each state takes the approach that it does this work situates a discussion of university expansion and quality in the context of governments educational policies and reflects on the larger struggles over social goals and the distribution of national resources Expanding the Donor Base in Higher Education Noah D. Drezner, 2013-04-17 Winner of the Association of Fundraising Professionals 2014 Skystone Partners Research Prize in Philanthropy and Fundraising Traditionally institutions have relied on wealthy White men to reach their fundraising goals But as state investment in public higher education lessens and institutions look to philanthropy to move from excellence to eminence advancement officers continually need to engage all populations including many that have historically been excluded from fundraising strategies Based on theory research and past practice Expanding the Donor Base in Higher Education explores how colleges and universities can build culturally sensitive fundraising and engagement strategies This edited book presents emerging research on different communities that have not traditionally been approached for fundraising including Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender and Queer LGBTQ alumni African Americans Latinos graduate students young alumni women and faculty donors Chapters discuss and analyze successful programs and provide practical suggestions and strategies to create and implement fundraising programs that engage these new donor populations Expanding the Donor Base in Higher Education is an essential resource for any institution looking to expand their pool of donors and cultivate a more philanthropic mindset among alumni and students
