The Fabric Of My Life Reflections Of Helen Frances Gregor:

The Fabric of My Life Helen Frances Gregor, Anetta Mach, 1987 Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech-American Biography Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2016-11-10 As the Czech ambassador to the United States H E Petr Gandalovic noted in his foreword to this book that Mla Rechcigl has written a monumental work representing a culmination of his life achievement as a historian of Czech America The Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech American Biography is a unique and unparalleled publication The enormity of this undertaking is reflected in the fact that it covers a universe starting a few decades after the discovery of the New World through the escapades and significant contributions of Bohemian Jesuits and Moravian brethren in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the mass migration of the Czechs after the revolutionary year of 1848 and up to the early years of the twentieth century and the influx of refugees from Nazism and communism The encyclopedia has been planned as a representative a comprehensive and authoritative reference tool encompassing over 7 500 biographies This prodigious and unparalleled encyclopedic vade mecum reflecting enduring contributions of notable Americans with Czech roots is not only an invaluable tool for all researchers and students of Czech American history but is also a carte blanche for the Czech Republic which considers Czech Americans as their own and as a part of its magnificent cultural history

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates Canadian craft and museum practice, 1900-1950 Sandra Flood, 2001-01-01 This book presents the first overview of craft activity as an integral part of Canadian culture between 1900 and 1950 and reviews the tone and focus of contemporaneous writing about craft It explores the diversity of all aspects of craft including makers production organization education and government involvement Published in English Canadiana ,1987 Crafting New Traditions Alan C. Elder, Jean Johnson, Melanie Egan, 2008 Published in collaboration with Harbourfront Centre Canadian Books in Print ,1990 Quill & Quire ,1987
