Casas Chiapas Mexico as part of a programme of arts cultural events and indigenous ceremonies To prepare for this journey Bruce chose not to learn Spanish but Tzotzil the local Maya language and to explore the indigenous people's beliefs worldviews and ways of life During these researches he learned that the Tzotzil pay close attention to their dreams and they consider that Westerners and non Maya Mexicans who ignore these night time voyages live only half a life This philosophy is expressed in the succinct Tzotzil phrase ta sba balamil ta ch'ulel on the face of the Earth and in the soul meaning that human life must be lived in both waking life and dreams This little book of strange verse accompanied by surreal sketches is an attempt to bridge the gap between the Mayan cosmovision and the Western world and represents an integrated reflection of Bruce's journey to Chiapas. Featuring visits to contemporary highland Maya villages, archaeological sites and time spent with indigenous people on the face of the Earth as well as ceremonies, visions and dreams and in the soul that became increasingly influenced by Tzotzil insights into how to live, this collection of poetry expresses Bruce's effort to intimate something of that fuller dreaming human life which for the indigenous people of Chiapas is as natural as events in the waking world. This delightfully designed volume features poems in both English and selected translations into the Tzotzil language and it is the fourth in the new Xibalba Books Poetry Series aimed at republishing selected highlights from Bruce's vast poetry archive.

Community in the Face of Tragedy Ken Penner, 2020-11-10 A short, concise yet powerfully inspirational book, Community in the Face of Tragedy, Eleanor's House takes readers on a journey of humanitarian care and practical living out of the gospel. In a world that can seem overwhelmingly unkind at times, this true story will rekindle hope and remind readers that we all have to take care of each other. Ken Penner relates the true story of Eleanor, an older lady who lives alone in the Bulkley Valley in northwestern British Columbia. Tragically, a fire destroys her home and the lack of insurance coverage and government aid threaten to leave her destitute. But when her compassionate neighbours decide to rise to Jesus Christ's challenge to do unto others, miracles start to occur and God's provision proves to be astounding. Those associated with Eleanor's house will cherish this record of memories, and those who only meet her in its pages will be encouraged to step out in faith and bless their neighbours too. A wonderful testimony to the power and love of God working through His people.

Pray This Way to Connect with God Hal Green, 2023-01-03 Prayer is the singular bridge between you and God. The state of your prayer life is the state of your God relationship. It is as vital to your well-being to develop a flourishing prayer life as it is to develop satisfying communication with loved ones. If you seek to know God personally, this book will assist you in your seeking as well as in your finding. If you want to transform your prayers from a monologue with you merely addressing God to a dialogue with God also addressing you, this book is for you. It will guide you from what prayer is to how to pray from breath prayers all the way to contemplative prayer.

Seeking the Face of God Gary Thomas, 1999-01-01 Thomas turns to the classic writings of well-known Christians to offer a program for rediscovering an authentic Christian spirituality that applies to everyday life's frustrations, problems, and even joys. Many will be grateful for the forceful sensitivity of this survey of classical insights into our fellowship with God.
