The Failure Of Grief:

The Failure of Grief Rush Rankin, 2000      Non-Death Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, 2019-10-16 Non Death Loss and Grief offers an inclusive perspective on loss and grief exploring recent research clinical applications and current thinking on non death losses and the unique features of the grieving process that accompany them The book places an overarching focus on the losses that we encounter in everyday life and the role of these loss experiences in shaping us as we continue living A main emphasis is the importance of having words to accurately express these living losses such as loss of communication with a loved one due to disease or trauma which are often not acknowledged for the depth of their impact Chapters showcase a wide range of contributions from international leaders in the field and explore individual perspectives on loss as well as experiences that are more interpersonal and sociopolitical in nature Illustrated by case studies and clinical examples throughout this is a highly relevant text for clinicians looking to enhance their support of those living with ongoing loss and grief      The Challenges of Corporate Entrepreneurship in the Disruptive Age Donald F. Kuratko, Sherry Hoskinson, 2018-11-22 Today's age of disruptive technology is a strategic game changer for most organizations Unpredictable market conditions create unprecedented challenges for simple organizational survival let alone avenues for innovation and growth This volume explores this dynamic environment in which corporate entrepreneurship strategies are pursued      The Routledge International Handbook of Child and Adolescent Grief in Contemporary Contexts Carrie Traher, Lauren J. Breen, 2023-11-29 This volume presents the leading research in child and adolescent grief from a diverse and global perspective focusing on the systemic political and cultural processes that have a direct bearing on the way youth experience loss and grief Carrie Traher and Lauren J Breen bring together a global community of academics practitioners and social activists to discuss and address the complexity of lived experiences of grief for young people today Presented in four parts the contributors begin by providing a theoretical overview of youth grief and bereavement before moving onto other important topics such as suicide bereavement the trauma of war digital grief narratives child soldiering and more Within each chapter authors address contemporary theoretical frameworks research findings and praxis related to both death and non death losses such as the Black Lives Matter movement environmental grief and grief on the internet and social media Including contributors from a range of countries and from various disciplines such as educators health care professionals policy makers and advocates the themes of coping resilience and growth are central and interwoven in each chapter This handbook is essential for researchers clinicians scholars educators parents and activists as to the most pressing societal and global issues that affect youth grief today and to provide context to their personal and professional interactions with youth Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license      Learning from Entrepreneurial Failure Dean A. Shepherd, Trenton Williams, Marcus Wolfe, Holger Patzelt, 2016-03-04 Learning from Entrepreneurial Failure provides an important counterweight to the multitude of books that focus on entrepreneurial success Failure is by far the most common scenario for new ventures and a critical part of the entrepreneurial process is learning from failure and having the motivation to try again This book examines the various obstacles to learning from failure and explores how they can be overcome A range of topics are discussed that include why some people have a more negative emotional reaction to failure than others and how these negative emotions can be managed why some people delay the decision to terminate a poorly performing entrepreneurial venture anti failure biases and stigmatism in organizations and society and the role that the emotional content of narratives plays in the sense making process This thought provoking book will appeal to academic researchers graduate students and professionals in the fields of entrepreneurship and industrial psychology

Confronting Failures of Justice

Paul H. Robinson, Jeffrey Seaman, Muhammad Sarahne, 2024-08-06 Most murderers and rapists escape justice a horrifying fact that has gone largely unexamined until now This groundbreaking book tours nearly the entire criminal justice system examining the rules and practices that regularly produce failures of justice in serious criminal cases Each chapter outlines the nature and extent of justice failures in present practice describing the interests at stake and providing real world examples Finally each chapter reviews proposed and implemented reforms that could balance the competing interests in a less justice frustrating manner and recommends one sometimes completely original reform to improve the system A systematic study of justice failures is long overdue As this book discusses regular failures of justice in serious criminal cases undermine deterrence and the criminal justice system's credibility with the community as a moral authority The damage caused by unpunished crime is immense and even worse falls primarily on vulnerable minority communities Now for the first time students researchers policymakers and citizens have a resource that explains why justice failures occur and what can be done about them Confronting Failures of Justice is accessible for use by college freshman through graduate students and law students and is designed to be main text for a course on justice failures but it could be used in conjunction with other texts in a broad range of courses touching on criminal justice It presents arguments in a highly organized fashion and provides dozens of case studies many with photographs to gain student interest and to bring the academic discussions to life
