If Prayer or invocation of the name of God belongs to the threefold Christian duty to God duty to oneself and duty to one's neighbor
1 It is our duty to God to show our faith in Him by prayer and His calling that we truly believe in Him we don't know any other God except Him we confess the source of all His blessings hope on Him as on The True Father Who loves His children and offers what he asks just like children in the flesh do not come to a strange father but to their own from whom they were born they come with petition
And the apostle says How to call on him in whom they have not believed Rom 10 14
And the Lord God Himself says I am the Lord your God Exodus 20 2 that is know Me alone confess trust Me alone and seek all good from Me
Call Me on the day of your sorrow and I will deliver you Ps 49 15 2
Duty in relation to ourselves since we are both physically and spiritually meager poor and cursed we must in faith seek all good from the Giver of all blessings Heavenly Father
3 The following applies to the duty concerning the neighbor
Christian love requires us to pray for our neighbor and both ourselves and him should be asked for good from our God as the apostle says Pray for each other to be healed James 5 16

A Theology for the Twenty-First Century Douglas F. Ottati,2020-10-15
Christianity in the United States is in crisis Liberalism is declining evangelicalism is splintering increasing numbers of Christians are slipping away from churches and more and more young people are for various reasons finding Christianity as they conceive it a metaphysical thought system or society of science deniers or an ideology for oppressors not just implausible but repellent
At the same time Christians across denominational and ideological divides are rediscovering a moral core especially in the Jesus of the Gospels that reactivates and unites them and this kind of faith appeals to many who consider themselves averse to all traditional organized religion
But any revitalized Christian faith is going to need to understand its rootedness in and interpretation of Christianity's foundational texts and traditions
Noted theologian Douglas F Ottati steps in to offer a theology for this new era
Combining deep learning in texts and traditions with astute awareness of contemporary questions and patterns of thought and life he asks what does it mean in our time to understand the God of the Bible as Creator and Redeemer
Distilling the content of Christian faith into seventy concise propositions he explains each in lucid cogent prose
A Theology for the Twenty First Century will be an essential textbook for those training for ministry in our current climate a wise guide for contemporary believers who wonder how best to understand and communicate their faith and an inviting and intelligent resource for serious inquirers who wonder whether the way of Jesus might help them grasp the real world while remaining open to the transcendent

The Spirituality of Following Jesus in John's Gospel Sean Seongik Kim,2017-10-12 Research on following Jesus has mostly been done in terms of what Jesus followers ought to do In this unprecedented study Kim presents following Jesus in John s Gospel through the perspective of what Jesus does for his followers Following Jesus is a journey towards the place where Jesus leads his followers that is to a relationship with the Father It is ultimately participating in the Son s communion with the Father Jesus who was in the bosom of the Father descended from him and ascends to him taking his followers with him so that they may be with him where he is with the Father in glory and love Kim develops this thesis by examining the term akolouthēin to follow and correlated motifs in John s Gospel
