The Falcon Takes Wing:

The Falcon Takes Wing Axel Aylwen,1991-01-01 Taking Wing Pat Shipman,1999-01-15 In 1861 just a few years after the publication of Charles Darwin's On the Origin of Species a scientist named Hermann von Meyer made an amazing discovery Hidden in the Bavarian region of Germany was a fossil skeleton so exquisitely preserved that its wings and feathers were as obvious as its reptilian jaws and tail This transitional creature offered tangible proof of Darwin's theory of evolution Hailed as the First Bird Archaeopteryx has remained the subject of heated debates for the last 140 years Are birds actually living dinosaurs Where does the fossil record really lead Did flight originate from the ground up or trees down Pat Shipman traces the age old human desire to soar above the earth and to understand what has come before us Taking Wing is science as adventure story told with all the drama by which scientific understanding unfolds Falcon Takes Wing - 27xdump (Full

Aylwen,1991-12-01 The Šulvasūtras George Thibaut,1875 Near Death in the Desert Cecil Kuhne,2011-06-08 A travel anthology that gathers the best adventure stories from the world's most barren landscapes Ranging from 19th century explorers to modern day journalists these desert trekkers deal with everything from deserting men corrupt armed soldiers and Nigerian bush taxis to suspicious natives stubborn camels and debilitating sunburn These thirteen tales are more than suspenseful they also show how life can survive in the most punishing climates The night was heavy with foreboding The rain which had been spitting down on us during the late afternoon grew heavier It hurled into our faces borne by a wind that was now gusting between the dunes at full force It was the worst storm we had encountered and Ned was out in it alone Justin Marozzi South from Barbary Also featuring Robyn Davidson's Desert Places Robyn Davidson follows the Rubari people across the Thar as she tries to adapt to a difficult but fascinating way of life Michael Asher's Two Against the Sahara Newlyweds embark upon a nine month 4500 mile journey across the world's largest desert traveling from Morocco to Sudan Bayle St John's Adventure in the Libyan Desert In 1847 a team of four trek deep into Libya in search of an oasis But what they find is even more astounding The zoologist ,1864 The Complete Works of William Shakespeare William Shakespeare,1907

ballet spectacle Franko postulates that the evolving aesthetic ultimately reflected the political situation of the noble class which devised and performed court ballets He shows how the body emerged from verbal theater as a self sufficient text whose autonomy had varied ideological connotations most important among which was the expression of noble resistance to the increasingly absolutist monarchy Franko's analysis blends archival research with critical and cultural theory in order to resituate the burlesque tradition in its politically volatile context Dance as Text thus provides a picture of the complex theoretical underpinnings of composite spectacle the ideological tensions underlying experiments with autonomous dance and finally the subversiveness of Moliere's use of court ballet traditions

The Dancing Body in Renaissance

Choreography Mark Franko, 2022-03-01 The Dancing Body in Renaissance Choreography problematizes the absence of the dancing body in treatises in order to reconstruct it through a series of intertextual readings triggered by Thoinot Arbeau's definition of dance in his 1589 dance treatise Orchesographie The notion of the intertext as elaborated by Michael Riffaterre is used to understand a series of relationships between dance and other activities within which the historical dancing body emerges to the light of day Arbeau's discussion of dance as a mute rhetoric in the demonstrative genre points to the intertext of Quintilian's The Oratorical Institution where the genus demonstrativum is explained as epideixis the goal of which is to inspire confidence and charm the audience The second intertext explored is that of civility as found in courtesy books where the posture of the body and the parameters of movement are outlined converging in the gesture of the reverence The categories of pose and movement are then read into the structure of the basse danse the quintessential courtly social dance of the period The relation of pose to movement or of stillness to mobility is further theorized through the terms of earlier Italian treatises specifically in terms of fantasmata as used by Domenico da Piacenza

On The Figure In General And

The Body In Particular: Nicole Brenez, 2023-07-11 Films fill our imagination with figures figurines and talismans They ceaselessly rework the same archetypes and invent troubling prototypes especially when they establish a deeper relationship to reality How do we understand these presences that are both so characteristic and so diverse in cinema How does film deal with bodies movements and gestures Why are we so drawn to these shadows silhouettes and hypothetical beings What organizes the figurative values at work in a film How do cinematic creatures circulate from film to film and image to image How does film articulate the links between the abstract and figurative Is it possible to write a history of figurative forms Starting from films themselves and works that are both classical Sergei Eisenstein Roberto Rossellini Orson Welles and contemporary Abel Ferrara Brian DePalma Patricia Mazuy celebrated Robert Bresson John Cassavetes Ken Jacobs Paul Sharits and overlooked Al Razutis Jean Genet Monte Hellman and John Travolta from auteurs as well as aesthetic questions representations of dance the naked body character development the essays in this volume most available for the first in English aim to open a field that has been neglected by analysis while also suggesting the tools necessary to understanding figurative phenomena specific to cinema
