The Fall Of A Sparrow Of Death And Dreams And Healing:

The Fall of a Sparrow Kent Koppelman, 2020-11-25 In this book the author describes his attempt to create a meaningful and satisfying grieving process following the death of his 19 year old son Jason in a car accident The narrative confronts the harsh reality of death from the hospital to the cemetery and the many mundane yet painful decisions that must be made For those who must cope with an unexpected death the grieving process becomes a struggle to express one's love and at the same time say goodbye

Wrestling with the Angel Kent Koppelman, Dale Lund, 2017-07-05 Wrestling with the Angel addresses the human struggle to cope with death dying grief and bereavement The book includes essays a one act play a short story and poetry including shape poems rhyming structured verse and free verse In the one act play an angel of death comes for a man who has lived an unexamined life and wants to explain why he is not prepared to leave The short story offers a humorous look at a man who resists aging by continuing to view himself as the young man he once was The diverse genres allow for different ways of exploring these issues but all are intended to engage the reader's emotions as well as intellect The writings incorporate reflections and quotations addressing common human issues related to our mortality and explore reactions to the loss of a loved one whether expected such as the death of an aging parent or someone with a terminal illness or unexpected such as accidental death The final chapters examine how aging causes us to assess our lives and why preparing ourselves for death can enhance the quality of our life This is a book with many more questions than answers but the reader is invited to share in the process of finding answers It is a book that requires the reader to be comfortable with ambiguity because the reality it describes is often ambiguous a reality that presents us with many choices but few certainties Intended Audience Scholars hospice workers funeral home directors hospital chaplains ministers and others who work with bereavement issues classes in death education and classes for mental health professionals in death and grief general readers who have suffered the loss of a loved one

Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of
