The Fall of the Philippines 1941-42 Clayton K. S. Chun, 2012-04-20 In the immediate aftermath of Pearl Harbor the Japanese launched an attack on the Philippines to eliminate the United States other major Pacific naval base Catching the US forces completely by surprise the Japanese bombed the major airfields and quickly gained air supremacy They followed with a full scale invasion that quickly rolled up US Filipino opposition and captured Manila Meanwhile US forces under the leadership of the Douglas MacArthur created a series of defensive lines to try and stop the Japanese advance Despite their efforts they were continually pushed back until they held nothing more than the small island of Corregidor With doom hanging over the US Filipino forces Douglas MacArthur was ordered to fly to safety in Australia

vowing to return Nearly five months after the invasion began the US Filipino forces surrendered and were led off on the Bataan Death March This book covers the full campaign from the planning through to the execution looking at the various battles and strategies that were employed by both sides in the battle for the Philippines United States Army in WWII - the Pacific - the Fall of the Philippines Professor Louis Morton,2014-08-15 Includes 11 tables 25 maps and 71 illustrations The soldier reading these pages would do well to reflect on the wisdom of the statement exhibited in a Japanese shrine Woe unto him who has not tasted defeat Victory too often leads to overconfidence and erases the memory of mistakes Defeat brings into sharp focus the causes that led to failure and provides a fruitful field of study for those soldiers and laymen who seek in the past lessons for the future The statesman and the unformed citizen reading these pages will realize that our military means as well as our estimates and plans must always be in balance with our long range national policy This lesson signposted by the Battle of Manila Bay the Treaty of Paris signed in December 1898 when we decided to keep the Philippines the Washington Conference of 1921 22 and the Manchurian Crisis of 1931 we ignored before Pearl Harbor The result was defeat on the field of battle and the loss of the Philippine Islands The Fall of the Philippines Louis Morton,2015-07-12 The soldier reading these pages would do well to reflect on the wisdom of the statement exhibited in a Japanese shrine Woe unto him who has not tasted defeat Victory too often leads to overconfidence and erases the memory of mistakes Defeat brings into sharp focus the causes that led to failure and provides a fruitful field of study for those soldiers and laymen who seek in the past lessons for the future The statesman and the informed citizen reading these pages will realize that our military means as well as our estimates and plans must always be in balance with our long range national policy This lesson signposted by the Battle of Manila Bay the Treaty of Paris signed in December 1898 when we decided to keep the Philippines the Washington Conference of 1921 22 and the Manchurian Crisis of 1931 we ignored before Pearl Harbor The result was defeat on the field of battle and the loss of the Philippine Islands The author of The Fall of the Philippines Louis Morton served overseas as a historical officer in the South Pacific area and in the Philippines during World War II Since 1945 he has been chief of the Pacific Section Office of the Chief of Military History Department of the Army He holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Duke University is the author of a volume on American colonial history and has written a number of articles dealing with military affairs The Rotarian ,1943-03 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine The Fall of the Philippines Louis Morton,2003-11-01 This volume by the U S Army s Center of Military was originally printed in 1953 Chapters Prewar Plans and Preparations The Isolation of the Philippines and the Japanese Landings The Withdrawal to Bataan The Siege of Bataan and Corregidor and the Southern Islands Dozens of tables maps and illustrations Dr Morton served overseas as a historical officer in the South Pacific area and in the Philippines during World War II After the war he became chief of the Pacific Section Office of the Chief of Military History Dept of the Army He began work on this volume in early 1947 Landpower in the Long War Jason W. Warren,2019-06-14 War and landpower's role in the twenty first century is not just about military organizations tactics operations and technology it is also about strategy policy and social and political contexts After fourteen years of war in the Middle East with dubious results a diminished national reputation and a continuing drawdown of troops with perhaps a future force increase proposed by the Trump administration the role of landpower in US grand strategy will continue to evolve with changing geopolitical situations Landpower in the Long War Projecting Force After 9 11 edited by Jason W Warren is the first holistic academic analysis of American strategic landpower Divided into thematic sections this study presents a comprehensive approach to a critical aspect of US foreign policy as the threat or ability to use force underpins diplomacy The text begins with more traditional issues such as strategy and civilian military relations and works its way to more contemporary topics such as how socio cultural considerations effect the landpower force It also includes a synopsis of the suppressed Iraq report from one of the now retired leaders of that effort The contributors made up of an interdisciplinary team of political scientists historians and military practitioners demonstrate that the conceptualization of landpower must move beyond the limited operational definition offered by Army doctrine in order to encompass social changes trauma the rule of law acquisition of needed equipment civil military relationships and bureaucratic decision making and argue that landpower should be a useful concept for warfighters and government agencies The Times When Men Must Die: The Story of the Destruction of the Philippine Army During the Early Months of World War II in the Pacific, December 1941-May 1942 , The Fall of the House of Credit Alistair Milne,2009-07-09 In this work Milne examines what went wrong in modern banking and offers solutions to repair the damage The Fall of the Philippines ,1985 Surviving Bataan and Beyond Irvin Alexander,2005-06-29 Colonel Irvin Alexander was one of the few captured at Bataan to survive the nightmarish experience of imprisonment in Japanese prison camps His account is a harrowing description of one of the most notorious incidents in World War Two Originally published 1999 The Fall of the West Nicholas Hagger,2022-11-25 In The Syndicate 2004 Nicholas Hagger described how in the 20th century a Syndicate of litist mega rich families levelled down the leading Western countries by promoting revolutions wars and independence movements against their empires and planned a New World Order and world government that would control the earth's resources for their own benefit In The Secret History of the West 2005 he traced the Syndicate's roots back to secret Freemasonic organisations and revolutions that undermined the West from the Renaissance to the early 20th century In The Fall of the West 2022 the third book in his trilogy on the West Hagger updates the story to include the pandemic and describes how Syndicate driven 21st century events from the War on Terror to Covid have brought the Western financial system to the brink of collapse and shifted power from the West to the East and China In this first impartial attempt to assemble all the evidence to date for the origin of Covid like fitting together available pieces of a jigsaw to reveal the main picture Hagger the first to discover the Cultural Revolution in China in March 1966 finds that the three main features of Covid 19 were man made by American NIAID funded medics in 2002 and patented 73 times since 2008 and seem to have been surreptitiously used as a bio weapon in a Syndicate plan to limit the rise of China and its expanding trade A dangerous new Biological Age has been born and the West faces being levelled down and a sudden fall Hagger sees the post Covid West's dream of creating a good New World Order a vaccine protected democratic presidential part federal world government and World State with sufficient authority to abolish war and solve the world's post Covid problems as being challenged by the self interested Syndicate's levelling down and to survive it first has to go along with the Syndicate's plan for West and East to draw together into an authoritarian world government involving China and democratise later This is a thought provoking work with a prophetic vision of the future

The Fate of the Generals Jonathan Horn, 2025-04-15 One of the very best World War II books in many years A great read General David Petraeus US Army Ret former Director of the CIA Fans of Unbroken will love this book Doug Stanton In the tradition of Ghost Soldiers a riveting The Wall Street Journal World War II story of bravery survival and sacrifice the vow Douglas MacArthur made to return to the Philippines and the oath his fellow general Jonathan Mayhew Wainwright made to stay with his men there whatever the cost For the doomed stand American forces made in the Philippines at the start of World War II two generals received their country's highest military award the Medal of Honor One was the charismatic and controversial Douglas MacArthur whose orders forced him to leave his soldiers on the islands to starvation and surrender but whose vow to return echoed around the globe The other was the gritty Jonathan Mayhew Wainwright who became a hero to the troops whose fate he insisted on sharing even when it meant becoming the highest ranking American prisoner of the Japanese In The Fate of the Generals bestselling author Jonathan Horn brings together the story of two men who received the same medal but found honor on very different paths MacArthur's journey would require a daring escape with his wife and young child to Australia and then years of fighting over thousands of miles to make it back to the Philippines where he would fulfill his famous vow only to see the city he called home burn Wainwright's journey would take him from the Philippines to Taiwan and Manchuria as his captors tortured him in prisons and left him to wonder whether his countrymen would ever understand the choice he had made to surrender for the sake of his men A story of war made personal based on meticulous research into diaries and letters including boxes of previously unexplored papers The Fate of the Generals is a vivid account that raises timely questions about how we define honor and how we choose our heroes and is destined to become a classic of World War II history

The Fall of Hong Kong Philip Snow, 2003-01-01 The definitive account of the wartime history of Hong Kong On Christmas Day 1941 the Japanese captured Hong Kong and Britain lost control of its Chinese colony for almost four years a turning point in the process by which the British were to be expelled from the colony and from East Asia This book unravels for the first time the dramatic story of the Japanese occupation and reinterprets the subsequent evolution of Hong Kong Magnificent The clarity of mind Snow brings to his labor of storytelling and contextualizing is amazing John Lanchester Daily Telegraph Beautifully written with many telling anecdotes Lawrence D Freedman Foreign Affairs Very good Provides a much more nuanced picture than has appeared before in English of life among Hong Kong's different communities before and during the Japanese occupation Economist

Christian Democracy and the Fall of Communism Michael Gehler, Piotr H. Kosicki, Helmut Wohnout, 2019-11-20 Debates on the role of Christian Democracy in Central and Eastern Europe too often remain strongly tied to national historiographies With the edited collection the contributing authors aim to reconstruct Christian Democracy's role in the fall of Communism from a bird's eye perspective by covering the entire region and by taking third way options in the broader political imaginary of late Cold War Europe into account The book's twelve chapters present the most recent insights on this topic and connect scholarship on the Iron Curtain's collapse with scholarship on political Catholicism Christian Democracy and the Fall of Communism offers the reader a two fold perspective The first approach examines the efforts undertaken by Western European actors who wanted to foster or support Christian Democratic initiatives in Central and Eastern Europe The second approach is devoted to the re emergence of homegrown Christian Democratic formations in the 1980s and 1990s One of the volume's seminal contributions lies in its documentation of the decisive role that Christian Democracy played in supporting the political and anti political forces that engineered the collapse of Communism from within between 1989 and 1991

Rolling Thunder Against the Rising Sun Gene Eric Salecker, 2008-04-16 First work dedicated solely to the use of Army tanks in the Pacific Theater Covers armor battles in the Philippines Makin the Solomons Rabaul New Guinea Saipan Guam and Okinawa The U.S. Army and World War II Judith Bellafaire, 1998 The U S Army and World War II is an anthology of selected papers from three international conferences held in 1990 1992 and 1994 on the Army's role in the war Taking the best from those meetings Judith L Bellafaire has organized the various presentations into four thematic categories prewar planning the home front the European theater and the Asian Pacific theaters reflecting the diversity of both the war and the interest of those seeking to understand its many facets In these carefully edited papers one will find the more conventional treatments of doctrine strategy and operations side by side with those focusing on military mobilization and procurement race and gender psychological warfare and large scale advice and assistance programs Despite significant changes in military technology and the geopolitical landscape of the world since those desperate times the human problems highlighted by the authors are not much different from many of those facing Army leaders today Although the past can never provide the specific recipes needed for the future experience has shown that both the basic ingredients and the manner in which they are prepared and processed have remained remarkably constant Those grappling with the challenges of stability operations and other contingency missions in support of the Global War on Terrorism will find this collection of readings invaluable
