performances of respectability femininity and motherhood are embodied by fashion and shaped by class In unpacking this fashion class relationship the book explores how fashion is used by British women to talk about class It offers important insights into the ways fashion mobilises class differences in understandings of dressing up performance and public space It considers how class identity shapes women s attitudes concerning fashion trends and classic styles and it draws attention to the pivotal role mothers play in cultivating these class distinctions The book will be of interest to students in sociology fashion studies cultural studies human geography and consumer behaviour
