Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine

Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today Language and Civilization Change in South Asia Maloney, 1978-06 The Creation of the British Atlantic World Elizabeth Mancke, Carole Shammas, 2015-10-15 Was the British Atlantic shaped more by imperial rivalries or by the actions of subnational groups with a variety of economic social and religious agendas The Creation of the British Atlantic World analyzes the interrelationship between these competing explanations for the development of the British Atlantic by examining migration patterns on both the macro and micro level It also scrutinizes the roles played by trade religion ethnicity and class in linking Atlantic borders and the increasingly complicated legal intellectual and emotional relationship between the British sovereign and colonial charterholders Contributors include Joyce E Chaplin John E Crowley David Barry Gaspar April Lee Hatfield James Horn Ray A Kea Elizabeth Mancke Philip D Morgan William M Offutt Robert Olwell Carole Shammas Wolfgang Splitter Mark L Thompson Karin Wulf Avihu Zakai A Separate Canaan Jon F. Sensbach, 2012-12-01 In colonial North Carolina German speaking settlers from the Moravian Church founded a religious refuge an ideal society they hoped whose blueprint for daily life was the Bible and whose Chief Elder was Christ himself As the community's demand for labor grew the Moravian Brethren bought slaves to help operate their farms shops and industries Moravians believed in the universalism of the gospel and baptized dozens of African Americans who became full members of tightly knit Moravian congregations For decades white and black Brethren worked and worshiped together though white Moravians never abandoned their belief that black slavery was ordained by God Based on German church documents including dozens of rare biographies of black Moravians A Separate Canaan is the first full length study of contact between people of German and African descent in early America Exploring the fluidity of race in Revolutionary era America it highlights the struggle of African Americans to secure their fragile place in a culture unwilling to give them full human rights In the early nineteenth century white Moravians forsook their spiritual inclusiveness installing blacks in a separate church Just as white Americans throughout the new republic rejected African American equality the Moravian story illustrates the power of slavery and race to overwhelm other ideals

An Economic History of West Africa A. G. Hopkins, 2019-10-17 This pioneering and celebrated work was the first and remains the standard account of the economic history of the huge area conventionally known as West Africa The book ranges from prehistoric times to independence and covers the former French territories as well as those colonised by the British It criticises conventional beliefs about economic backwardness offers an alternative account that explains the particular configuration of poverty that characterised the pre colonial period and assesses the consequences of the region's interaction with the wider world from the growth of the Saharan and Atlantic trades to the rise and demise of colonial rule This edition contains a substantial new Introduction that discusses the development of the subject during the past 50 years evaluates the debate over the original interpretation and provides a valuable guide to additional reading bringing the reader up to date with current scholarship on the subject as well as providing avenues for further independent research Appearing at a time when the study of African economic history is enjoying a revival and is engaging economists as well as historians the book fills a large gap in African studies provides newcomers with a stimulating point of entry into the subject and contributes to our understanding of wider issues of global underdevelopment
