Water Worlds: Human Geographies of the Ocean Kimberley Peters, 2016-02-11 Our world is a water world Seventy percent of our planet consists of ocean However geography has traditionally overlooked this vital component of the earth s composition The word geography directly translates as earth writing and in line with this definition the discipline has preoccupied itself with the study of terrestrial spaces of society and nature This book challenges human geography s preoccupation with the terrestrial investigating the terra incognita of the seas and oceans Linking to new theoretical debates shaping the geographic discipline such as affect assemblage emotion hybridity and the more than human this volume unlocks new knowledge concerning the human geographies of ocean space The book casts adrift stable bounded and fixed conceptions of space and advances geographical understanding based on the world as becoming changing mobile and processional This ontology supports the notion that the oceans are not simply fluid in a literal way but also in a conceptual sense suggesting that the seas have their own fluid natures their own capacities and agencies which are co fabricated with social and cultural life This book features twelve chapters authored by key academics contributing to this growing field of research The book is divided into three sections including an Introduction by the editors and a foreword by Prof Philip E Steinberg the leading scholar in the field of maritime geographies The first section of the book considers the ways in which different watery spaces from the Atlantic Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea have been conceptualized theorized and known through metaphors voyages of discovery and scientific endeavour The second section examines how oceans are experienced through various activities including driving on water kayaking in water and diving under water The final section explores the relations between human life and the nature of the sea as a material mobile and more than human spa

Ethno-Aesthetics of Surf in Florida Anne Barjolin-Smith, 2020-09-21 Ethno aesthetics of Surf in Florida discusses surf and music as glocal sociocultural constructs Focusing on Florida s unexplored surfing culture the book illustrates how musical experience begets representations about the world that highlight ways of acting and being of various sociocultural communities Based on the conceptualization of ethno aesthetics this ethnographic study provides an analysis of the Space Coast surfers community s collaborative effort to build social cohesion through their musicking This transdisciplinary research in American Studies draws upon various theoretical perspectives from both the humanities and social sciences including ethnomusicology social psychology and sociolinguistics to propose new ways of exploring the links between surfing and musicking This monograph looks past the myth of iconic 1960s Californian surf music to show how as a result of the globalization of surfing the musicking of Floridian surfers has allowed them to express their subjectivities and to make sense of their world This book contributes to the debate on the disputed notions of identity and representations by establishing connections between a local expression of the surf lifestyle and its music It proposes theoretical models that explain cultural hybridization appropriation and belonging in surfing It also develops concepts and notions such as surfanization surf strand lifestyle crossover and identity marking to illustrate how global practices such as surfing are endowed with various modes of expression exemplified by the emergence of unique regional subcultures of surfing

Journey To The Sea Gil McNeil,Hugo Tagholm,Sarah Brown,2012-07-31 Whether it is memories of childhood holidays or exotic fantasies of faraway places a sea and its coast forms the most evocative of landscapes Combining elements of romance danger and mystery it provides the perfect inspiration for this unique collection The finest writers from our water bound nation including Alexander McCall Smith Ruth Rendell Joanne Harris Joseph O Connor and Libby Purvis give us their accounts of adventures and chance encounters short stories and non fiction pieces representing the many facets of the sea s power that will haunt and inspire The collection also includes gripping accounts of real life adventures on the ocean from such experienced sailors as Sir Robin Knox Johnston First Sea Lord Admiral Sir Alan West and Tracy Edwards A literary tribute to the last earthly frontier the ocean
