Stolen Love Behaviour:

The Study of Stolen Love Nakkīraṇār, 1997 This is the first complete English translation of an important work of Tamil poetics Composed in southern India around the eighth century CE this is a commentary structured around 60 verses of uncertain origin on the poetry of love The commentary also includes hundreds of illustrative poems drawn from various Tamil literary periods ranging from the very earliest through the eighth century

Interior Night John Stammers, 2011-11-21 John Stammers has a poetic mind original enough to read the most mundane and familiar events as great portents and wonders and an eye clear enough to uncover the surreal when it's right under our noses Stammers third collection is a vast map of an imaginative space that coincides with the known world but radically changes the way we perceive it Interior Night sees a restlessly eclectic mind engaged with the whole range of human creation from our cultural icons to our cultural detritus There are also dramatic monologues from the dark worlds of poverty and addiction as well as typically unsettling run ins with the shades of Rimbaud Sterne and Keats Stammers has focused all his celebrated daring and oblique strategies to produce a book of great emotional candour and seriousness

Panoramic Lounge Bar John Stammers, 2011-11-21 John Stammers's collection is witty touching and clever with brilliant images where love scenes are laced with irony and the details of contemporary life He writes about irrelevant vampires living out their days on the sea front at Eastbourne about flowers with fine pointed petals like scalpels and is absolutely brilliant on music His writing is vivid and assured

The Poem and the Journey Ruth Padel, 2007 Ruth Padel is an award winning poet who has also become renowned as an energetic generous and thought provoking guide to reading poetry Her 52 Ways of Looking at a Poem with its lively overview of contemporary writing and eye opening readings of individual poems is indispensable for anyone who writes poetry teaches it or simply wants to enjoy it In her new book she uses sixty poems by some of our finest poets to look at the idea of the journey through literature and through life As Padel makes clear in her fascinating introduction today's debates about how accessible a poem should be are poetry's older tradition To rhyme or not to rhyme The Elizabethans fought over that one while the Greeks couldn't agree about whether poetry should be dumbed down or remain the preserve of the elite Combining her training as a Classicist with her insights as a poet Padel highlights the ways in which the best poets now find a balance between rhymed formal verse and modernism's freer styles using a traditional formal craft to convey genuinely felt up to the minute experience In an increasingly unstable world she argues we need poetry more than ever to help us to see afresh and understand the journeys of our lives

Poetry by Heart Andrew Motion, 2014-10-02 Poetry by Heart based on the hugely successful nationwide schools competition 200 magical poems to learn by heart The poems we learn stay with us for the rest of our lives They become personal and invaluable and what's more they are free gifts there for the taking Simon Armitage Two years ago former Poet Laureate Andrew Motion had the idea of setting up Poetry by Heart a nationwide annual competition for secondary schools which asked contestants to learn two or three poems and be judged on their recitations
