Road to Mound Grove Betty B. Cantwell, 2014-03 Road to Mound Grove a memoir tells the story of Betty Jean's family in rural southeastern Oklahoma during the Great Depression. In challenging times they move from one house to another along Indian Road until they stumble on a home of their very own. A quiet little girl Betty Jean attempts to do the right thing but accidentally discovers trouble. Betty Jean's family and neighbors lack electricity, running water, and indoor bathrooms. A typical coal oil lamp glows in every home and water is routinely drawn from a well. She attends school at Mound Grove where Miss Vergie and Miss Agnes teach eight grades in two rooms. Although her daddy works from daylight until nearly dark with President Roosevelt's WPA building roads and bridges, her family barely makes ends meet. In spite of the harsh conditions Betty Jean has a life filled with love, laughter, and singing a life where she learns to make something out of nothing. The story of Betty Jean's family will continue in a sequel Growing Up at Mound Grove a special place where neighbors' lives are intertwined for generations.

Life Is Built Around If Frankie Oberlechner, 2010-12 My life was hard and I had no love. That is what I always longed for so much love, the real heartfelt kind of love with hugs and kisses. So a lot of the time I daydreamed and pretended I was the great pretender long before the song came out. As I sit here my mind wanders back in time. Come along on the journey as Frankie Oberlechner shares the tale of Charlea, a woman whose life was never easy, often terrible but always blessed with joyous moments and God's protection. Charlea is looking back on her life and noticing something important. God has always been there for her. As a child she found herself needing to act like a grown up. Her mama and daddy were always drinking away the money. She had to act like a mother for her sister's children when she was only a child herself. Her daddy was abusive, threatening their very lives at times. But Charlea had her grandmother whose home was a safe haven where she learned about God's love. There life was easier until her grandmother passed away. Then it seemed as though Charlea would never find the light again. True friends were hard to come by until she met Lin and June. Soon after she met Ben they married despite the fact that no one liked him. She thought life would be different but Ben proved to be much like her daddy, an abusive alcoholic. As Charlea grew into a woman she had many ups and downs. Charlea was caught in a terrible web but then she was reintroduced to God and things began to change. Join Charlea as she discovers the love she has always longed for and that Life Is Built around If.
