

My Family

Read the story.

Peter is ten years old and lives with his family in a small house near the beach.

There are five people in Peter's family. His mum's name is Pam. She is tall with long, blonde hair and big, green eyes. His dad's name is Chris. He is also tall with short, brown hair and small, blue eyes. Both of Peter's parents are kind and helpful.

Peter has one brother, Tom. Tom is older than Peter, he is twelve years old. Tom has short, curly hair and small, brown eyes. Tom is kind to Peter. He shows him how to ride a bicycle and also helps him with his homework.

Peter's sister is only a baby. Her name is Tammy. Peter loves his sister. After school, Peter likes to read stories to Tammy. Tammy likes animal stories because Peter makes funny voices and faces for each animal.

Hussein's reign of terror beginning in the 1960s to the fight against ISIS today violence revolution and questions around identity agency survival and resistance have been at the forefront of women's lives for decades This book is a collection of these women's stories written in their own words Each story reveals a tapestry of experiences including political activism under Saddam and armed resistance in Rojava's PKK and YPG and Komala in Rojhalat This is in addition to experiences of FGM and overcoming victimhood life under extreme conservatism as well as a look into the work of artists poets novelists and performers whose work represents a complicated relationship with Kurdistan These rich and nuanced insights come from a group of women from a nation without a state who are now scattered across the world Collectively they take the reader on a journey that will inspire feminist anti fascist and anti racist people across the world

The Pot and Other Stories Banda-Aaku, Ellen, 2016-03-11 Imagine you are held aloft by a group of wonderful women from Uganda Ghana Botswana South Africa and Niger Then with skill and grace you are carried across Africa to meet engaging characters that they know well Reading The Pot and other stories is both a delightful literary experience as well as a journey deep into intimate spaces on the Continent Although the stories are individualistic and they tackle a variety of themes there is seamlessness in the style Each writer presents us with characters that take you by the hand into vividly painted worlds Each writer seems to pick up where the other left off Each has achieved storytelling excellence Eight stories eight writers five countries one remarkable journey Reading this collection we are reminded that Africa is a birthplace of human kind and as such the origin of all storytelling These writers have skilfully crafted a collection that honours an ancient tradition This anthology presents a range of issues Some stories paint everyday life with a light comic touch as in the story in which a policeman sees the future of his marriage suddenly tied to the destiny of a cooking pot while others use the mundane as the vehicle to probe difficult questions of destiny or the role of a local story telling in a country with a brutal history
