Stories from Robert Browning Frederic May Holland, 1882 Prose adaptations of selected works of Robert Browning

Sordello, a Story from Robert Browning Frederic May Holland, 2024-05-04 Reprint of the original first published in 1881

Stories from Robert Browning Verney Cameron Turnbull, Robert Browning, 1914 Stories From Robert

Browning. Frederic May Holland, 2020-03-06 Mr Holland has here done a great service at once to Mr Browning's fame and to the public. In view of the general reader he has adopted the most efficient form of interpretation applicable to a poet whose greater efforts are essentially dramatic in character though often hardly dramatic in form. The works dealt with are Strafford, Sordello, Luria, The Adventures of Balaustion, A Blot in the Scutcheon, The Ring and the Book, Passes, The Return of the Druses, and Colombe's Birthday. Mr Holland in all cases has put himself en rapport with his author and has picturesquely presented the outline of facts in which Mr Browning has built up his masterpieces. And he has been most successful precisely where his task was likely to prove most difficult. The story of Sordello and The Ring and the Book leave nothing to be desired as stories; there are touches which for simplicity and grace bespeak something of real imagination on the part of the writer. Notably is this the case too in Luria and Balaustion. But we fear that the reading of these tales will be a disappointing introduction to the originals for all who are indisposed to welcome qualities which have and can have no reflection here in which lie the differentiae of Mr Browning's genius. Mr Browning is not like Shakespeare the story of whose dramas are really the outlines of the dramas; with Mr Browning the facts are merely starting points for psychological analysis and suggestion in which Mr Browning figures as a speculator not only on the events and characters but on their inner history which needs a constant reference to his own. The British Quarterly Review Volume 77 Selected Stories from Rudyard Kipling Rudyard

Kipling, 1919 Stories from Robert Browning Frederic May Holland, 1882 Prose adaptations of selected works of Robert Browning Selected Stories from Kipling Rudyard Kipling, 1922 Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.

Department of Printed Books, 1901 Life of Robert Browning William Sharp, 2019-12-19 In Life of Robert Browning William Sharp delves into the complex world of one of the Victorian era's most significant poets. The biography is meticulously crafted, combining a narrative style that is both engaging and informative, enriched with profound analyses of Browning's works and the influences that shaped his life. Sharp's attention to detail illuminates Browning's intricate psychological landscape and his innovative approach to poetry, offering readers a vivid glimpse into the societal and artistic currents of 19th-century England that influenced Browning's literary output. William Sharp himself a poet and critic was not only well acquainted with Browning's oeuvre but also embedded in the literary circles that championed the poet's work. Sharp's perspective is informed by his own experiences as a contemporary writer as well as his close relationships with notable figures of the time. His ability to intertwine personal anecdote with literary criticism results in a nuanced portrait of Browning, giving readers an intimate understanding of the poet's creative process and personal struggles. For those interested in Victorian literature or the life of creative geniuses Sharp's Life of Robert Browning is an essential read. It not only provides critical insight into Browning's poetry but also captures the essence of his spirit, making it a significant contribution to literary scholarship and a compelling narrative for any reader.
