Stories Of Beginning Teachers First Year Challenges And Beyond:

Stories of Beginning Teachers Alysia D. Roehrig, Michael Pressley, Denise A. Talotta, 2002 Stories of Beginning Teachers offers insight into the challenges and triumphs of beginning teachers presenting both research findings and case studies on the challenges faced by new teachers More than twenty categories and five hundred specific examples of potential problems and issues are cited in Part 1 of this book Armed with such useful information about the most frequent serious and persistent challenges Roehrig Pressley and Talotta assert a young educator will be better prepared to teach and more likely to succeed Part 2 contains stories of the teaching experience of participants in the University of Notre Dame s Alliance for Catholic Education Included are nine vivid stories of the struggles and successes of new teachers reflecting on their first year as well as sixteen shorter summaries of the daily lives of beginning teachers Reading this book a novice teacher will better understand student motivation student learning human development classroom organization classroom management assessment techniques and the administration of schools

Handbook of Research on Enhancing Teacher Education with Advanced Instructional Technologies Ololube, Nwachukwu Prince, 2015-07-17 Before today s teachers are ready to instruct the intellectual leaders of tomorrow they must first be trained themselves Information and communication technology can greatly increase the effectiveness of this training and also aid teachers as they seek to bring the latest technological advancements into their own classrooms The Handbook of Research on Enhancing Teacher Education with Advanced Instructional Technologies explains the need to bring technology to the forefront of teacher training With an emphasis on how information and communication technology can provide richer learning outcomes this book is an essential reference source for researchers academics professionals students and technology developers in various disciplines

The New Lives of Teachers Christopher Day, Qing Gu, 2010-06-10 The New Lives of Teachers examines the varied often demanding commitments on teachers lives today as they attempt to pursue careers in primary and secondary education Building upon Huberman s classic study it probes not only teachers everyday lives but also the ways in which they negotiate the pitfalls of professional development and the different life and work scenarios that challenge their sense of identity well being and effectiveness The authors provide a new evidence based framework to investigate and understand teachers lives Using a range of contemporary examples of teaching they demonstrate that it is the relative success with which teachers manage various personal work and external policy challenges that is a key factor in the satisfaction commitment well being and effectiveness of teachers in different contexts and at different times in their work and lives The positive and negative influences upon career and professional development and the influences of school leadership culture colleagues and conditions are also shown to be profound and relate directly to teacher retention and the work life balance agenda The implications of these insights for teaching quality and teacher retention are discussed This book will be of special interest to teachers teachers associations policy makers school leaders and teacher educators and should also be of interest to students on postgraduate courses Examining the Teacher Induction Process in Contemporary Education Systems Öztürk, Mustafa, Hoard, Paul Robert, 2018-08-10 Before today's teachers are ready to instruct the intellectual leaders of tomorrow they must first be trained themselves Every teacher experiences an induction process that can make their early years as an educator nerve racking Focusing on this period of time in a teacher's career can lead to greater teacher retention and success Examining the Teacher Induction Process in Contemporary Education Systems addresses the construct of teacher induction through theoretical and empirical research It also provides an in depth conceptualization of being a novice teacher through micro political realities of teaching in different geographical and cultural regions While highlighting topics including adaptation challenges mentor mentee interaction and teacher retention this book is ideally designed for school administrators early career teachers educational researchers educational professionals and academicians seeking current research on early career educator adaptation and practices New Trends in English Teacher Education Arsenio Jesús Moya Guijarro, Ignacio Ramos Gay, José Ignacio Albentosa Hernández, 2009-02-02 Here is a collection of papers exploring from an interdisciplinary standpoint recent developments in teaching English as a second language Insights into teaching methodologies language acquisition and applied linguistics encompass the use of literature and cultural studies in educational research in order to provide teachers and scholars with a state of the art account of the current progresses in foreign language education Neoliberalism and Education Systems in Conflict Khalid Arar, Deniz Örucü, Jane Wilkinson, 2020-12-29 Neoliberalism and Education Systems in Conflict Exploring Challenges Across the Globe explores how neoliberal values are imprinted onto educational spaces and practices and by consequence fundamentally reshape how we come to understand the educational experience at the school or system level Countries across the globe struggle with the residual effects of increased accountability choice voucher systems and privatization The first section of the book discusses the direct imprint of neoliberal policies on educational spaces The next section examines the more indirect outcomes of neoliberalism including the challenges of inequity access violence racism and social justice issues as a result of neoliberal ideologies Each section of the book includes case studies about education systems across the globe including Britain Middle East Turkey United States China and Chile written by international contributors Neoliberalism and Education Systems in Conflict is essential reading for educators scholars and faculty of educational leadership and policy globally Becoming a teacher Josef de Beer, 2020-12-31 This book disseminates original research on learning in and from practice in pre service teacher education Authors such as Lederman and Lederman describe the student teaching practicum or work integrated learning WIL which is an essential component of pre service teacher education as the elephant in the room These authors note that the capstone experience in any teacher education programme is the student teaching practicum after all this is where the rubber hits the road However many teacher educators will agree that this WIL component is sometimes very insufficient in assisting the student teacher to develop their own footing and voice as a teacher This is the gap that this research book addresses Most of the chapters in the book report empirical data with the exception of two chapters that can be categorized as systematic reviews WIL is addressed from various angles in the chapters Chapter 6 focuses on research related to what makes Finnish teacher education so effective and in Chapter 4 researchers of the University of Johannesburg disseminate their findings on establishing a teaching school based on Finnish insights in Johannesburg Chapter 3 highlights the challenges faced in open and distance learning teacher education contexts Several of the chapters disseminate research findings on alternative interventions to classic WIL namely where safe spaces or laboratories are created for student teachers to learn and grow professionally These could either be simulations such as software programmes and avatars in the intervention described in Chapter 2 student excursions as the findings in chapters 5 7 and 10 portray or alternative approaches to WIL e g Chapters 11 and 12 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education The target audience is scholars working in the fields of pre service teacher education work integrated learning and self directed learning The book makes a unique contribution in terms of firstly its extensive use of Cultural Historical Activity Theory as a research lens and secondly in drawing on various theoretical frameworks Both quantitative and qualitative research informed the findings of the book

Solution-Focused Brief Therapy Cynthia Franklin, 2012 Therapy is frequently miscast as requiring an enormous amount of time and financial commitment but helpful goal oriented therapy can produce positive results after only a few sessions By focusing on solutions instead of problems SFBT asks clients to set concrete goals and to draw upon strengths in their lives that can help bring about the desired change for a preferred future

Mentoring for School Quality Bruce S. Cooper, Carlos R. McCray, 2015-10-21 Making Mentoring Work should help educators to mentor or to be mentored effectively in our schools We all have had mentors those key adults from family work or schools who have assisted us in learning and becoming good adults skilled and able professionals and contributing member of community and society Although it s not easy it does occur is doable and this book seeks to help everyone educators in particular both to be mentored and to be a mentor In fact the authors believe and show that everyone needs mentoring and many have the capacity knowledge and savvy to be a helpful mentor to others in their field school and world
