Can You Read Me? Jacki Pritchard, Eric Edward Sainsbury, 2004

This book presents poems stories and journal work spontaneously written by people young and old who have suffered serious abuse The editors explanations and commentaries suggest how health and social care workers can facilitate creative writing as a potential contribution to emotional healing in work with both individuals and small groups In addition to individual contributors the book records the activities of groups developed by Barnardos for children and young people and by Beyond Existing for adults Although not written as a training manual per se the book offers photocopiable exercises and an appendix of writings for use in staff training Can You Read Me illustrates the great potential for applying our creative imaginations and personal qualities like sensitivity in work with survivors of abuse and those with mental health and disability problems
