Stormy Weather F H Varley A Biography:

Stormy Weather Maria Tippett,1998 Frederick Horsman Varley was a binge drinker womanizer and spendthrift He was also a charter member of Canada s most famous band of painters the Group of Seven and in his own right one of the country s finest and most inventive artists He is best known for the landscape paintings that were his chief contribution to the Group of Seven exhibitions Of these Stormy Weather Georgian Bay may be the most widely recognized and admired He never held down a job for long Although a fine portrait painter he could not bring himself to curry favour with the powerful people who might have given him a living as a portraitist He was above all a committed bohemian who put his art before friends family and conventional appearances Varley refused to turn out repeated renditions of the kind of landscape paintings that had given rise to his early fame He needed new inspiration and sought it in new locations from British Columbia to the Cape Breton highlands The result is a varied body of work in which the enduring achievements are his early war pictures his portraits and landscapes from both the Group of Seven and later Lynn Valley British Columbia periods F.H. Varley Katerina Atanassova,2007-03-30 Frederick Horsman Varley was unique among the members of the Group of Seven One of the greatest Canadian portraitists of the twentieth century he is an intriguing example of an artist who despite his fame as a portrait painter remains better known for his landscapes This is due mainly to his position as one of the founding members of the Group of Seven and their deliberate attempt to raise awareness of our national identity by depicting the Canadian landscape Even though many public collections across the country including the National Gallery of Canada the Art Gallery of Ontario and the Vancouver Art Gallery display some of Varley s best known portraits these works do not easily fit into the conventional mould of the Group of Seven Nearly four decades after his death Varley s portraits are still not fully acknowledged The release of this beautifully illustrated bilingual volume coincides with the opening of an unprecedented exhibition of his portraiture Harold Mortimer-Lamb Robert Amos,2013 Harold Mortimer Lamb s name is in the index of almost every book written on the history of Canadian art yet his place in that world has never been clear Photographer writer painter promoter he was a man of many parts and the ideal patron and friend to some of Canada s most famous artists including A Y Jackson Emily Carr and Jack Shadbolt At the centre of his story are his relationships with painter Frederick Varley and young student Vera Weatherbie whom Mortimer Lamb at the age of seventy eventually married when she was just thirty Profusely illustrated with his photos paintings and the art he collected Harold Mortimer Lamb The Art Lover brings into focus an unknown chapter in Canadian art history Stormy Weather Maria Tippett,1998 He never held down a job for long Although a fine portrait painter he could not bring himself to curry favour with the powerful people who might have given him a living as a portraitist BOOK JACKET He was above all a committed bohemian who put his art before friends family and conventional appearances BOOK JACKET Leonard and Reva Brooks John Virtue,2001 In 1947 Leonard and Reva Brooks left for Mexico where Leonard planned to study painting for a year In Mexico they discovered a vibrant sometimes even dangerous society and a dynamic artistic community unlike the mundane world they had left behind in Canada with its stale and unwelcoming artistic scene Invigorated by their new environment Leonard and Reva ended up staying for over half a century playing a key role in establishing San Miguel de Allende as a world famous art colony In this new biography John Virtue chronicles the lives of these two important artists and offers an intimate look at these complex and creative people Virtue describes how they were caught up in the McCarthy era of Communist witch hunts and blacklisted in the United States He details their close friendships with luminary figures such as Marshall McLuhan Earle Birney and the Mexican art icon David Alfaro Siqueiros as well as a host of others As Leonard became a fixture in the Mexican art scene Reva s photography quickly garnered international recognition applauded by photographers Ansel Adams and Edward Weston In 1975 the San Francisco Museum of Art selected her as one of the top fifty female photographers of all time With tales of deportations shootouts murder attempts failures and triumphs Leonard and Reva Brooks is a biography of two creative people caught up in interesting times

A.Y. Jackson Wayne Larsen,2009-09-21 A founding member of the Group of Seven Jackson portrayed the Canadian landscape in a bold and inventive manner illustrating a key chapter in Canadas coming of age

Jackson's Wars Douglas Hunter,2022-05-15 A captivating account of the formative years of one of Canada s best known artists Jackson s Wars follows A Y Jackson s education and progress as a painter before he was a well known artist and his time on the battlefield in Europe before he cast his lot in with a group of like minded Toronto artists Jackson fought many battles he was a feisty and opinionated combatant when he crossed swords with critics collectors museums galleries and fellow painters as an emerging artist Moving from Montreal to Toronto in 1913 he became a key figure in a landscape movement that was determined to depict Canada in a bold new way only to have a war dash the group s collective ambitions Alone among his close associates Jackson enlisted to fight with the 60th Infantry Battalion Wounded at Sanctuary Wood in 1916 he returned to the field of combat as an official war artist the first Canadian artist appointed the only infantryman in the program and militated for other Canadian appointments to what is now a storied moment of creation for such artists as F H Varley and Arthur Lismer Jackson produced some of Canada s most memorable depictions of the world s first industrial scale conflict even as he reckoned with the anguish caused by the mysterious death of his close friend Tom Thomson A life changing event for soldiers families and nations alike the First World War has been understood as a moment of stasis in the visual arts in Canada the dead ground from which the Group of Seven emerged in the early 1920s Douglas Hunter shows how Jackson s war was a moment of intense transformation and artistic development on the canvas as well as an experience that tempered a young man into a constructive elder statesman for Canadian art On his return home he was not only instrumental in the formation of the Group of Seven in Toronto but a key figure for the Beaver Hall Group in Montreal Jackson s Wars is a story of brotherhoods of painters and soldiers shot through with inspiration ambition trauma and loss on the home front as well as on the battlefield Hunter widens and deepens A Y Jackson s world of friends family and colleagues to capture the life of a complex man and the crucial events and relationships behind the creation of Canada's best known art collective Picturing the Land Marylin Jean McKay, 2011 The vast Canadian landscape has captured the imagination of visual artists since the first European contact Although artistic engagement with the landscape has a long history some periods have drawn considerable critical attention while others have been left almost unexamined Picturing the Land surveys work from coast to coast from the earliest maps to postwar painting in English and French Canada To provide a comprehensive view of Canadian landscape art Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marylin McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada Unlikely Paradise Alan D. Butcher, 2009-07-23 Winner of the 2010 Donald Grant Creighton Award Artist Frances Gage born in 1924 in Windsor experienced both artistic recognition and acute despair in her life yet she flourished in her work and as part of the contemporary Toronto art scene A friend of Frances Loring and Florence Wyle she developed a greater connection with the Group of Seven working closely with Frederick Varley and producing reliefs of both him and A Y Jackson while working in Tom Thomson's shack Frances remained focused and positive and became a successful sculptor creating more than five hundred works of art Still even though she achieved the dream she strove toward during all the years of struggle she discovered that the Dante like Paradise she had sought and gained was instead the poet's Inferno in disguise Her correspondence as referenced in this remarkable biography bears out this insight in a life often marked by unsatisfying triumph over tragedy It presents a candid view of one of Canada's most fascinating artists of the twentieth century Community Development on the North Atlantic Margin John Hutson, Reginald Byron, 2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 Isolated communities dependent upon fishing farming and forestry which are scattered around the North Atlantic coast have shared a disastrous decline during the last decade These communities are in the peripheries of advanced industrial nation states such as Canada and supra national alliances such as the European Community yet despite this there are no easy solutions to the development of these regions This volume argues that the productive assets of these regions and how they can be used to sustain household incomes need to be better understood The assets need to be converted into products and services and they need to be marketed profitably The diminishing flow of young people who leave these areas to obtain higher education and who do not return must be turned around and efforts must be concentrated on the creation or strengthening of economic conditions which satisfy the younger generation's employment aspirations consumer requirements and social needs
