

The book cover features a dark, textured background with a large, detailed eye in the center. The eye has a light blue iris and a dark pupil, looking directly at the viewer. The eye is surrounded by dark, jagged, and somewhat translucent shapes that resemble torn paper or dark, flowing liquid. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, blacks, and greys, with a few highlights of yellow and orange on the left side, suggesting a light source or fire. Skin: Shadows: Silence Deena Metzger, 1976 Skin, Shadows, Silence Deena Metzger, 1972 The Diary of Anaïs Nin, 1955-1966 Anaïs Nin, 2012-11-09 The sixth volume of the diary of one of the most extraordinary and unconventional writers of the twentieth century The New York Times Book Review Anaïs Nin continues one of the most remarkable diaries in the history of letters with this volume covering more than a decade of her midcentury life Los Angeles Times She debates the use of drugs versus the artist's imagination portrays many famous people in the arts and recounts her visits to Sweden the Brussels World's Fair Paris and Venice Nin looks at life love and art with a blend of gentility and acuity that is rare in contemporary writing John Barkham Reviews Edited and with a preface by Gunther Stuhlmann The Woman Patient Malkah Notman, 2013-11-11 This volume presents the knowledge views and experiences of experts in the fields of health care that are particularly important to women Not all of the authors agree on all of the issues but all share the same concerns about women's health and recognize the importance of providing information to enable women to become active participants in the health care partnership The idea for the book evolved from our own work in the field of women's health care The positive responses we received to several papers and presentations based on our experiences and addressed to patients physicians and other health care professionals indicated that there is a growing need for open discussion of women's health care issues as well as a need for developing and implementing new and better ways of dealing with these issues We were further motivated by the repeated failure of the health care community to integrate new insights and information that frequently contradict older established beliefs and practices into current health planning education and practice
