Vienna Blood & Other Poems Jerome Rothenberg, 1980 Vienna Blood Other Poems is in some ways the most synthesizing of Jerome Rothenberg's recent collections pulling together work from the 1970s that stands apart from Poland 1931 1974 and A Seneca Journal 1978 yet at the same time continuing the enactment of past and present begun in those books But where before he chose to restrict his exploration to ancestral Jewish and Amerindian poetries Rothenberg now takes us on a series of broader journeys through the collapsed landscape of what he calls the new wilderness evoked as place as structure as mind Written both to be read quietly on the printed page and aloud in performance the poems in Vienna Blood though experimental and language centered are nevertheless the work of a poet who by his own admission is crazy for content make no mistake about it As if to underscore this point he has appended brief comments to most of the major sections of the book in order as he says to give it some context in the way of oral tradition usually reserved for poetry readings etc a little of which I now commit to writing a Year & other poems Jos Charles, 2022-03-15 From the celebrated author of feeld comes a formally commanding third collection dexterously recounting the survival of a period suffused with mourning Jos Charles's poems communicate with one another as neurons do sharp charged in language that predates language A scandal three cartons red in a hedge in each the thousand eye research of flies With acute lyricism she documents how a person endures seemingly relentless devastation California wildfires despotic legislation housing insecurity amid illusions of safety I wanted to believe Charles declares a corner a print leaned to a corner can save a people Still the house falls apart Death visits and lingers Belief proves again and again that belief alone is not enough Yet miraculously one might still manage to seek propelled by love or hope or sometimes only momentum something better There is a place where there are no futile longings no persistent institutional threats to one's life Poems might take us there tenderness too as long as we can manage to keep moving A current gives as much as it has writes Charles despite fire despite loss Harrowing and gorgeous a Year other poems is an astonishing new collection from a poet of unusual beauty and lyricism New Yorker COLERIDGE AND WORDSWORTH:
