It was 46 years before his record of five World Championships was beaten but even now he is still remembered for an exceptional Formula 1 career which contained some of the greatest displays of skill and daring ever seen. Few though know of his almost super human exploits in epic South American road races that made competition at the pinnacle of motor sport seem like child's play. Gerald Donaldson chronicles not only those arduous early competitions but also his long journey from humble origins in remote Argentina to the lofty heights of international celebrity The International Who's Who Gale Group, 60th 96-97, 1996 This source of biographical information on the foremost men and women in the world today contains 20 000 detailed biographies each of which includes nationality date and place of birth career history and present position honours awards leisure interests current address and telephone number Dictionary of International Biography, 2001 A biographical record of contemporary achievement together with a key to the location of the original biographical notes Stirling Moss Scrapbook 1961 Stirling Moss, Philip Porter, 2006-06-01 The year 1961 heralded a new era for motor racing with the introduction of Formula One. It was a double challenge for Stirling Moss who was still recovering from the accident that had almost killed him the year before. Yet a rested and refreshed Moss relished the challenge. In this season of change he drove Lotus, Ferraris, Coopers and Porsches and found time to court a succession of glamorous women much to the delight of the world's press Thirsty Tom Gilbey, 2025-11-06 My favourite wine writer Jack Whitehall. I like to talk about wine the way normal humans talk about things they love. It's not about showing off how many fancy wine terms I know. The point is to share something I love with someone else in a way that makes them want to love it too. Thirsty is the story of Tom Gilbey, The Wine Guy, and his life in wine: a celebration of the bleeding beautiful people who make it and a history of his family's love affair with winemaking and let's be honest drinking since the 1800s. Learn how to read a label even if you can't speak the language, talk wine without sounding naff, choose wine in a restaurant, explain why some wine smells like your granny's cardigan. Along the way you'll discover 100 Wine Writer approved bottles, wines for friendships and long lunches for autumn afternoons and winter evenings. Whether yours is a Châteaufort du Pape, Kylie Minogue's rosé or God forbid orange wine, Tom will help you find the good stuff always. Let Tom show you how this gloriously gluggable elixir is at its heart made to bring pleasure and that there is no right or wrong to enjoy wine, just go for it. The perfect Christmas gift for every wine lover in your life. Entertaining and engaging.
