A Distant Magic M.J. Putney, Mary Jo Putney, 2007 Bestselling author M J Putney weaves a new tale in the Guardian series a dazzling romantic fantasy that takes readers not only from the elegant streets of London to a dangerously tempting Mediterranean island but across time Jean Macrae's family is one of the most prominent clans of Guardians humans whose magical powers come from nature but Jean considers her skills modest at best She has never been able to summon the intense earth altering ability that has marked the most talented Guardians and she is content without the adventure that such skill brings until the day she is confronted by a handsome stranger whose magic imprisons her on his pirate ship Captain Nikolai Gregorio is convinced that Jean's father abandoned him as a child to slavers Now he seeks vengeance against the Macraes no matter the cost But Jean soon finds his untrained magical gifts far more dangerous than his thirst for revenge especially when they intensify her own powers to an unthinkable and enticing degree And when Jean and Nikolai's irresistible connection summons a woman from the future they are charged with a formidable task protect those who will oppose slavery's evil and forever change the future of two nations This quest will sweep Jean and Nikolai into the most fantastic of realms and try their powers beyond even what the Guardians themselves would dare And when ultimate disaster threatens they will stake everything on a shattering test of love that could secure the fate of generations or destroy them and all they cherish Praise for The Guardian Trilogy Magic and traditions of all kinds an abundance of well delineated characters and fascinating historical and political detail make A Distant Magic the most complex and unusual Guardian novel to date Library Journal Putney's fully imagined magical system combined with Georgian detail is a terrific setting for a tale of
