Mysteries in History Paul D. Aron, 2005-11-07 This work is an engaging exploration of the process of historical research following historians as they search for solutions to the greatest mysteries of all time Award winning author Paul Aron takes readers on a journey through great historical mysteries through the ages Entertaining in themselves the stories also show that history is not merely living but lively The reader who comes to the book thinking history is boring will leave with a changed outlook with regard to both the subject matter and the process of writing history Each chapter is a carefully and thoroughly researched presentation not of popularized accounts but of valid historical scholarship Chronologically arranged the essays show the historical process in action For each disputed historical point theories arise become standard wisdom and then are revised as additional information becomes available This book reveals the mechanics of that process including spirited debate swashbuckling archaeology and the application of modern science to ancient questions

Upon a White Horse Peter Ross, 2025-09-11 I m a card carrying admirer of Peter Ross Robert Macfarlane The prehistoric sites of Britain and Ireland are places of wonder and wondering Who made these structures What did they mean to them And what do they mean to us now Bestselling author Peter Ross journeys from midwinter at Stonehenge to midsummer at Sycamore Gap Along the way he encounters bog bodies in Dublin a wooden goddess in Edinburgh and a chalk giant in Dorset He asks what it is like to live within the great stone circle at Avebury what rituals occurred in an Anglesey tomb and what draws volunteers to care for the Uffington White Horse These objects and structures speak of the long human story They offer the comfort of recognition and the pleasure of mystery There is something about ancient places that fills a hollow in our souls Upon A White Horse is a celebration of landscape and people and all that is beautiful strange and old PRAISE FOR STEEPLE CHASING A delicious treat Financial Times A charming odyssey The Times Lovely lyrical whimsical elegiac TLS Engaging New Statesman A wonderful book Daily Telegraph
