Stop Press The Inside Story Of The Times Dispute:

A History of the National Graphical Association John Gennard, 2025-09-24 Originally published in 1990 and written with full access to the official records of the NGA this book provides a remarkably detailed history of one of Britain's most democratic and industrially effective trades unions. The author describes and analyses the evolution and development of the NGA from 1948 to 1989. This is however more than a study of one trade union. It provides unparalleled insight into post-war industrial relations in the general printing and newspaper industry and a unique account and analysis of the impact of the most radical industrial revolution ever experienced in these industries. It also stands alone as a fascinating inquiry into the anatomy of union mergers. The book is arranged in four parts. The first deals with the NGA and its founding unions, relationship with other printing unions, the formation of the NGA in 1964 and the formation of the NGA 1982 in March 1982. The second part deals with the decision making and financial structure of the NGA whilst the third part analyses its relationship with the TUC and the Labour Party. The final part deals with the relationship with employers and covers such central issues as wages, hours of work, holidays, pensions and women's issues. A History of the National Graphical Association will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of industrial relations, labour history and contemporary British politics.

The Murdoch Archipelago Bruce Page, 2013-09-17 Rupert Murdoch is one of the most powerful men in the world today. As chief executive of News Corporation he controls a global media empire which boasts some of the major players in newspapers, television, publishing and the movie business. In the English speaking world and increasingly in untapped but potentially lucrative markets such as China he wields an influence as political kingmaker second to none. How did he do it? How did this empire, a loose archipelago of media islands large and small, come to be so successful and influential? Building on many years' research and featuring many previously undisclosed revelations, THE MURDOCH ARCHIPELAGO is the most definitive survey yet of Murdoch's life and times, how power flows from influence and whether this should or if it can be regulated.

My Paper Chase Harold Evans, 2009-11-05 A vivid and whip-smart memoir from the legendary editor who spent decades leading newspapers in London and New York. In My Paper Chase Harold Evans recounts the wild and wonderful tale of newspapering life. His story stretches from the 1930s to his service in WWII through towns big and off the map. He discusses his passion for the crusading style of reportage he championed, his clashes with Rupert Murdoch and his struggle to use journalism to better the lives of those less fortunate. There's a star-studded cast and a tremendously vivid sense of what once was: the lead type, the smell of the presses, eccentrics throughout and angry editors screaming over the intercoms. My Paper Chase tells the story of Evans's great loves: newspapers and Tina Brown, the bright young journalist who became his wife. In an age when newspapers everywhere are under threat, My Paper Chase is not just a glorious recounting of an amazing life but a nostalgic journey in black and white.

A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996. Containing over 25,000 entries, this Paper Tigers Nicholas Coleridge, 2012-10-31 Paper Tigers is a riveting authoritative and in depth study of newspaper barons of the world men and women who wield immense power and whose ever changing media empires make compelling case studies of business success and failure From Rupert Murdoch to Robert Maxwell Conrad Black to Lord Rothermere Katharine Graham to Punch Sulzberger Coleridge interviewed them all The results confirm his status as a devastatingly astute observer of our times one with few equals today

ABHB Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries H. Vervliet, 1984-07-31 This twelfth volume of ABHB Annual bibliography of the history of the printed book and libraries contains 3333 records selected from some 2000 periodicals the list of which follows this introduction They have been compiled by the National Committees of the following countries Italy Australia Austria Luxembourg Belgium The Netherlands Poland Bulgaria Canada Portugal Denmark Rumania Finland South Africa France Spain German Democratic Republic Switzerland German Federal Republic USA Great Britain USSR Hungary Yugoslavia Ireland Republic of Spain and Latin America have partially been covered through the good offices of an American colleague Benevolent readers are requested to signal the names of bibliographers and historians from countries not mentioned above who would be willing to co operate to this scheme of international bibliographic collaboration The editor will greatly appreciate any communication on this matter Subject As has been said in the introduction to the previous volumes this bibliography aims at recording all books and articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of the arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description Of course the ideal of a complete coverage is nearly impossible to attain However it is the policy of this publication to include missing items as much as possible in the forthcoming volumes The same applies to countries newly added to the bibliography

The Media in Britain Jeremy Tunstall, 1983 British newspapers The Times The Guardian Daily Telegraph and Financial Times have long been considered among the best in the world and the BBC has become the world's most venerated television and radio organization In this book Jeremy Tunstall author of The Media are American surveys British media since 1945 including television radio films newspapers and magazines with the purpose of studying how they operate and what the future holds for them In the course of the book he discusses such issues as the relationship of politics to the media media audiences media biases control of the media by conglomerates and policies for the future

The Spectator, 2005

Murdoch William Shawcross, 1994 Rupert Murdoch invented the modern global information empire His relentless determination and daring and his repeated

willingness to bet the balance sheet in order to acquire more newspapers television stations satellite networks cable systems and publishing houses have been amply rewarded Murdoch s information empire now reaches two thirds of the world s population making him one of the most powerful men on earth In this revised edition of his classic 1993 biography William Shawcross updates the story of Murdoch s battles to extend his electronic footprint around the globe
