

The moment we stop caring for one another regardless of race... is the moment we lose our humanity.

Stop A Moment:

Arts-based and Contemplative Practices in Research and Teaching Susan Walsh, Barbara Bickel, Carl Leggo, 2014-11-13
This volume presents a scholarly investigation of the ways educators engage in artistic and contemplative practices and why this matters in education Arts based learning and inquiry can function as a powerful catalyst for change by allowing spiritual practices to be present within educational settings but too often the relationship between art education and spirituality is ignored Exploring artistic disciplines such as dance drama visual art music and writing and forms such as writing witnessing freestyle rap queer performative autoethnograph and poetic imagination this book develops a transformational educational paradigm Its unique integration of spirituality in and through the arts addresses the contemplative needs of learners and educators in diverse educational and community settings

The Path of Emancipation Thich Nhat Hanh, 1996-05-31 The Path of Emancipation transcribes Thich Nhat Hanh's first twenty one day retreat in North America in 1998 when more than four hundred practitioners from around the world joined him to experience mindfulness This book deliberately preserves the tone and style of a retreat including soundings of the bell meditation breaks and the question and answer sessions This not only provides a genuine feeling of a retreat for those who have not had the chance to participate in one but it also preserves this wonderful practice time for those who have attended In The Path of Emancipation Thich Nhat Hanh translates the Buddhist tradition into everyday life and makes it relevant and transforming for us all Studying in depth the Discourse on the Full Awareness of Breathing he teaches how mindfulness can help us reduce stress and live simply confidently and happily while dwelling in the present moment
