Storia Dell'unione Sovietica Complete Two Volume Set:

Selected Writings on the State and the Transition to Socialism N. Bukharin, Richard B. Day, Stephen F. Cohen, Ken Coates, 2020-10-14 Underlying current controversies about environmental regulation are shared concerns divided interests and different ways of thinking about the earth and our proper relationship to it This book brings together writings on nature and environment that illuminate thought and action in this realm Entrepreneurship and Innovation Bruce A. McDaniel, 2002 An economic analysis of entrepreneurship and the development process for innovation It seeks to distinguish the role of the capitalist from that of an entrepreneur and to show how the entrepreneur's actions impact new employment economic growth and advancements in the standard of living The Imperial Moment Kimberly Kagan, 2010-05-03 In a provocative study on comparative empire noted historians identify periods of transition across history that reveal how and why empires emerge Loren J Samons on Athens and Arthur Eckstein on Rome examine classical Western empires Nicholas Canny discusses the British experience Paul Bushkovitch analyzes the case of imperial Russia and Pamela Kyle Crossley studies Qing China's beginnings Frank Ninkovich tackles the actions of the United States at the turn of the twentieth century which many view as imperial behavior What were the critical characteristics that distinguished the imperial period of the state from its pre imperial period When did the state develop those characteristics sufficiently to be called an empire The authors indicate the domestic political social economic or military institutions that made empire formation possible and address how intentional the transition to empire was They investigate the actions that drove imperial consolidation and consider the international environment in which the empire formed Kimberly Kagan provides a concluding essay that probes the historical cases for insights into policymaking and the nature of imperial power Problems of Communism, 1980

Eurocommunism Between East and West Vernon V. Aspaturian, Jiri Valenta, David P. Burke, 1980 Rethinking Geographical Explorations in Extreme Environments Marco Armiero, Roberta Biasillo, Stefano Morosini, 2022-07-14 Focusing on extreme environments from Umberto Nobile's expedition to the Arctic to the commercialization of Mt Everest this volume examines global environmental margins how they are conceived and how perceptions have changed Mountaintops and Arctic environments are the settings of social encounters political strategies individual enterprises geopolitical tensions decolonial practises and scientific experiments Concentrating on mountaineering and Arctic exploration between 1880 1960 contributors to this volume show how environmental marginalisation has been discursively implemented and materially generated by foreign and local actors It examines to what extent the status and identity of extreme environments has changed during modern times moving them from periphery to the centre and discarding their marginality

The first section looks at ways in which societies have framed remoteness through the lens of commercialization colonialism knowledge production and sport while the second examines the reverse transfer focusing on how extreme nature has influenced societies through international network creation political consensus and identity building This collection enriches the historical understanding of exploration by adopting a critical approach and offering multidimensional and multi gaze reconstructions This book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in environmental history geography colonial studies and the environmental humanities Radio Free Europe Research ,1979-12
