Stories of Ageing Mike Hepworth, 2000 Stories of Ageing is a book combining sociological analysis literature and a gerontological agenda It opens up fiction as a resource for anyone interested in the process of growing old and is essential reading for all students researchers and practitioners in the field

BOOK JACKET Critical perspectives on ageing societies Miriam Bernard, Thomas Scharf, 2007-05-16 This important book brings together some of the best known international scholars working within a critical gerontology perspective Together they review and update our understanding of how the field has developed over the last twenty five years and through the lens of passionate scholarship provide a challenging assessment of the complex practical and ethical issues facing older people and those who conduct research on ageing in the 21st century The contributions extend the critical gerontological approach conceptually methodologically and practically They offer close and scholarly analysis of policies affecting the lives of older people and provide insights into why research is done in particular ways Special attention is paid to feminist contributions and new approaches to working in partnership with older people age discrimination and ageism the impact of neo liberal policies and the passage of various human rights instruments the re medicalisation of later life the participation of older people in research and justice between generations The editors and contributors offer suggestions for promoting change and an exciting set of visions and perspectives for the renewal and development of critical gerontology in the years ahead

Perspectives on Ageing Societies will be a valuable resource for all students academics and practitioners interested in ageing and the life course

A Lasting Conversation Susan Ogle, Melanie Joosten, 2020-04-01 A Lasting Conversation Stories on Ageing explores many aspects of ageing including resilience and defeat satisfaction and regret excitement and fear love loss and laughter These stories are written from various perspectives including older women and men their daughters and sons grandchildren and observers They present a fascinating picture of what it is to grow old as an Australian Each story is infused with acute observations and wry humour A Lasting Conversation includes the work of some of Australia's best story tellers Jon Bauer Tony Birch Gillian Bouras Helen Garner Sonya Hartnett Kate Grenville Cate Kennedy Michael Meehan Mandy Sayer Amy Witting and Michelle Wright as well as stories by health care professionals This collection will be a resource for the baby boomers who are approaching old age older people their families carers doctors and students

Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2003 Explore pastoral strategies for dealing with mental health problems Mental health is increasingly being recognized as an important issue in later life This valuable book will help you examine this dimension of aging in the context of pastoral spiritual and cultural issues It explores the relationship between mental health spirituality and religion in later life including the search for meaning cultural issues spiritual issues depression dementia and issues of suicide in older people The first part of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life focuses on theology ethics and cultural issues in mental health and aging The second part addresses issues of multidisciplinary practice including a challenging chapter written by a woman with early onset dementia Alzheimer's and other chapters that present perspectives on the uses and meanings of ritual and symbolism in mental health and pastoral approaches to care Part one of Mental Health and Spirituality in Later Life deals with issues of theology culture and mental health in later life focusing on the importance of a richly textured understanding of personhood as a prerequisite for constructing a picture of late life mental health in the context of theology the relationship between culture spirituality and meaning for older immigrants and their effects on mental health the adverse effects of a mental health system that reflects only the dominant culture of a society leaving minority cultures vulnerable to misdiagnosis and inappropriate treatments that can do more harm than good a wholistic picture of aging that moves beyond the biomedical paradigm and demonstrates the power and potential of the human spirit in adjusting to and moving beyond suffering Part two of this valuable book addresses issues of concern to practitioners in mental health and spirituality for the aging including disruptive behavior among nursing home residents and common practices that fail to identify its causes or address the problem how some staff resident interactions can produce suffering for all concerned with case study outlines that illustrate the point memory loss and its effect on spirituality self worth and the faith community pastoral care for people suffering with dementia with practical information on helping them to make use of the power of prayer and to deal with loneliness fear and disempowerment an insightful look at a recent major study of residents in aged care facilities in Australia that explores the link between depression and spirituality risk and protective factors associated with suicide in later life and the treatment of depression pastoral interventions for depression and dementia Mobile Story Making in an Age of Smartphones Max Schleser, Marsha Berry, 2018-04-07 The participatory turn in media arts and design along with interrelated developments in the proliferation of social and network media have changed our understanding of the contemporary mediascape Mobile Story Making in an Age of Smartphones reveals how smartphones and storytelling are forming a symbiosis that empowers twenty first century citizens and creatives around the world The edited collection further develops definitions and debate around creative mobile media and its impact on media art and design It brings together mobile artists digital ethnographers explore new directions in the creative arts with a focus on screen production Lastly it demonstrates how mobile devices and smartphones can make a difference in peoples lives and catalyses creativity in order to tackle current socio cultural issues

Shame and the Aging Woman J. Brooks Bouson, 2016-08-19 This book brings together the research findings of contemporary feminist age studies scholars shame theorists and feminist gerontologists in order to unfurl the affective dynamics of gendered ageism In her analysis of what she calls embodied shame J Brooks Bouson describes older women s shame about the visible signs of aging and the health and appearance of their bodies as they undergo the normal processes of bodily aging Examining both fictional and nonfiction works by contemporary North American and British women authors this book offers a sustained analysis of the various ways that ageism devalues and damages the identities of otherwise psychologically healthy women in our graying culture Shame theory as Bouson shows astutely explains why gendered ageism is so deeply entrenched in our culture and why even aging feminists may succumb to this distressing but sometimes hidden cultural affliction Connecting Childhood and Old Age in Popular Media Vanessa Joosen, 2018-01-19 Contributions by

G k e Elif Baykal Lincoln Geraghty Ver nica Gottau Vanessa Joosen Sung Ae Lee Cecilia Lindgren Mayako Murai Emily Murphy Mariano Narodowski Johanna Sj berg Anna Sparrman Ingrid Tomkowiak Helma van Lierop Debrauwer Ilgim Veryeri Alaca and Elisabeth Wesseling Media narratives in popular culture often assign interchangeable characteristics to childhood and old age presuming a resemblance between children and the elderly These designations in media can have far reaching repercussions in shaping not only language but also cognitive activity and behavior The meaning attached to biological numerical age even the mere fact that we calculate a numerical age at all is culturally determined as is the way people act their age With populations aging all around the world awareness of intergenerational relationships and associations surrounding old age is becoming urgent Connecting Childhood and Old Age in Popular Media caters to this urgency and contributes to age literacy by supplying insights into the connection between childhood and senescence to show that people are aged by culture Treating classic stories like the Brothers Grimm s fairy tales and Heidi pop culture hits like The Simpsons and Mad Men and international productions such as Turkish television cartoons and South Korean films contributors explore the recurrent idea that children are like old people as well as other relationships between children and elderly characters as constructed in literature and media from the mid nineteenth century to the present This volume deals with fiction and analyzes language as well as verbally sparse visual productions including children s literature film television animation and advertising Old Greek Stories James Baldwin, 1895 The Story Pirates Present: Stuck in the Stone Age Story Pirates, Geoff Rodkey, 2020-02-11 Cavemen A saber toothed tiger And a Rockball tournament This laugh out loud time travel adventure inspired by a real kid s idea doubles as a creative writing guide for young writers Tom Edison no not that Tom Edison is a hopeful janitor who dreams of becoming a scientist and Dr Morice is a shy scientist who dreams of making friends When an accident at the lab sends them back in time to the stone age Tom and Dr Morice must work together to face down cavemen saber tooth tigers and other B C hazards with only one problem Tom isn t very good at science and Dr Morice isn t very good with people Changing kids lives one story at a time is the motto of the Story Pirates a group of performers who bring kids writing to life through sketch comedy Stuck in the Stone Age is an action packed adventure based on an idea from a real kid Teaming up with New York Times bestselling author Geoff Rodkey the Story Pirates present this hilarious story which doubles as an introduction to the basics of creative writing With the help of Story Pirate Captain Vincent Rolo and the Story Creation Zone readers can use this novel as inspiration to create their OWN great adventure
