main character attending a 50 Year Class Reunion and then flashes back to her four years in high school At that time she lived in a small southern California town where everyone knew everyone else and there wasn't much for teenagers to do and yet they manage to keep busy somehow Life at that time before the electronic age went at a much slower pace and people who grew up in the 50's and 60's were part of the last innocent generation The book describes Elaine's relationship with her family her life on a poultry ranch and the closeness of a small community It also describes many high school activities classes boy girl relationships and problems and heartaches the euphoria and the sadness that are a part of life at that age The story is based on an actual town and high school and many incidents in the book actually happened the way that I described them I did change the names of the town and the high school however Back in those days it was much easier to work on your own car the old hot rods and jalopies Gas was thirty one cents a gallon and one could buy a hamburger and Coke for less than fifty cents But the monthly income for the average working family was only about 300 so the budget had to be stretched to make ends meet A few women worked outside the home but most did not Many of the television sets were black and white but color TV was on its way in There was no reality TV at that time but there were plenty of Westerns and family programming Of course music played a huge part in the lives of young people and it was the era of Rock and Roll Elvis Buddy Holly and the Everly Brothers were household names Dick Clark's American Bandstand was on TV in the afternoons and everyone rushed home from school to watch the latest dances There were only records at the time 45's and 78's which were played on phonographs It would be years before cassettes CD's and iPods were invented The music was portable though because everyone was getting transistor radios If a group of kids got together at a lake or somewhere out in the middle of nowhere they would just tune their car radios to the same station and turn up the volume I have tried throughout the book to portray life back in those days with many details depicting the culture and fads of that time I am hoping that this book will give today's teenagers a different perspective on life at that time while giving my own generation a chance to walk down Memory Lane

Martha Jefferson Randolph, Daughter of Monticello Cynthia A. Kierner, 2012-05-14 As the oldest and favorite daughter of Thomas Jefferson Martha Patsy Jefferson Randolph 1772-1836 was extremely well educated traveled in the circles of presidents and aristocrats and was known on two continents for her particular grace and sincerity Yet as mistress of a large household she was not spared the tedium frustration and great sorrow that most women of her time faced Though Patsy's name is familiar because of her famous father Cynthia Kierner is the first historian to place Patsy at the center of her own story taking readers into the largely ignored private spaces of the founding era Randolph's life story reveals the privileges and limits of celebrity and shows that women were able to venture beyond their domestic roles in surprising ways Following her mother's death Patsy lived in Paris with her father and later served as hostess at the President's House and at Monticello Her marriage to Thomas Mann Randolph a member of Congress and governor of Virginia was often troubled She and her eleven children lived mostly at Monticello greeting famous guests and debating issues ranging from a woman's place to slavery religion and democracy And later after her family s financial ruin Patsy became a fixture in Washington society during Andrew Jackson s presidency In this extraordinary biography Kierner offers a unique look at American history from the perspective of this intelligent tactfully assertive woman Mediating Indianness Cathy Covell Waegner,2015-02-01

Dyslexia Eric M. Taylor, 2017-09-07 Living with dyslexia has been an uphill struggle from the day I started school until the day I left to go to work and even after going to work where I found that there were bullies in the workplace where they thought it was amusing that people could not spell Join me on my journey as I recount being a child with dyslexia whilst living in poverty and trying to pick up odd jobs to help provide for my mother from the age of twelve Whilst writing this book I have left most of the spelling unchecked in the hopes it would give people an insight into the toils of living with dyslexia and a glimpse inside the way a dyslexic child sees the world I ask you to read me if you can The Locket Jessica Blair, 2011-04-07 When Emily Thornton discovers a will linked with the murder of a sea captain in Hull in the 1860 s she is determined to discover what happened but a vital witness is missing So Emily enlists the help of Thomas Laycock a young man who has come to Hull to open his own detective agency As the pair travel to Middlesbrough and Whitby the investigation unfolds and their attention is brought to a locket worn by a mysterious young woman Emily and Thomas are convinced that this is a crucial link in the case Can they unravel the meaning behind this unusual locket And escape the danger following them every step of the way America, the Winds of Change C. D. Wilson, 2010-02-23 The Winds of Change Reg O'Brien is an American hero wounded in Vietnam He returns to the US where he finds true love with Navy Captain Sadie Morgan his doctor at Walter Reed Hospital His story follows homeland battles against organized crime and terrorists that attempts to corrupt US forces and private industry His victories lead him to the US Senate and the inner circle of power with the Whitehouse as its hub After he returns home he decides to attend the Naval War College when he recuperates from his wounds He took standard courses in the first few semesters and then specialized in Warfare Analysis and Research Trained to develop strategic concepts to advise the Chief of Naval Operations the advanced courses led him to a position in Naval Intelligence He fights corruption in the military and on the streets of America His success leads him to an advisory position with the CIA and the FBI where he helps fight the flow of drugs into the United States In so doing he assists in the take down of Mafia kingpins and the Terrorist who are using drug money to advance their cause Please read random paragraphs from The Winds of Change Once he started his student days at the Naval War College his workload was extremely heavy but it was what he wanted to do He took courses in Warfare Analysis and Research International Law Naval Intelligence and Maritime Strategy Before he knew it the first year flashed by with only one major interruption to his training and that was orders to report to Washington Reg attended a function at the White House the President of the United States presented him with the Medal of Honor and at the same time promoted him to Lieutenant Commander It was a proud moment for the entire O'Brien family Chuck and Lynda came up from Florida for the presentation and someone new to the family also attended as Reg's guest The Guantanamo Sting turned out to be the biggest take down of not only the Catroni family from New York City but seventeen Navy officers located in the US Guantanamo Bay and several bases in Europe Most of the Navy officers ended up doing time at Leavenworth the military prison Elias's fears proved to have a solid foundation when two NCIS officers were included in the disgraced group of corrupt officers To top it off it was icing on the cake when the investigation proved that the poppies for the heroin came from Iran The profits funneled to terrorist's organizations that had been involved in hijacking American planes and attacks on innocent American civilians visiting Europe Hundreds of Americans had died in hijackings and literally millions of American youth had suffered the horrendous pain of drug addiction The CIA became involved in the Guantanamo Sting because of the terrorist connections Several heroin labs in Iran exploded mysteriously A definite outbreak of deathly food poisoning in the terrorist training camps in both Iran and Libya also took place Persons unknown depleted the secret bank accounts in Switzerland of those terrorist organizations The Swiss bankers cooperated and the CIA handed over compromising pictures of the Bankers and their mistresses in return I did my duty in Vietnam because I had sworn an oath to serve and protect my country It would have been easier to play the saxophone in a military band where the worst damage I could have done is hit a wrong note at an officer's dance or got a split lip if a drunk banged into me while I was playing the sax On the other hand I could have joined the National Guard became a pilot and then simply walked away from my obligations when the going looked like it was going to get tough Yes I could have if my family had the connections and I had the desire to cleanse my records
