Social Status And Power In Java:

Social Status and Power in Java Leslie H. Palmier, 2021-06-23 This book is a closely observed anthropological study of life in two small Javanese towns and at the same time it attempts a general analysis on sociological lines of some key characteristics of contemporary Javanese society In particular the author s examination of the manner in which a pre existing authoritarian system is being adapted to republican institutions grounded in democratic ideas helps us to understand many of Indonesia s present day social and political problems

The Social Evolution of Indonesia F. Tichelman, 2012-12-06 At a fairly early stage of socialism s penetration into the Afro Asian world a handful of European social democrats established an Indian Social Democratic Association ISDV They did so in a country Indonesia that was economically little developed and far away from any of the centres of European socialism and Asiatic radical nationalism The ISDV was soon able to bring its influence to bear on sections of the urban proletariat and to build up an Indonesian revolutionary movement This occurred in sharp competition with a nascent nationalist leadership and then without the usual intermediary role played by radicalizing groups of native intelligentsia In this way Dutch social democrats laid the foundations for one of the first communist parties in Asia and Africa a party which was destined to become one of the few communist mass parties of the Third World However in contrast to the major communist movements of China Vietnam this Indonesian party was to demonstrate a basic weakness successive and catastrophic defeats If we leave out Japan the only non Western country where a capitalist industrial revolution occurred we see that foreign and particularly Western minorities frequently did play a dominant role in the initial and formative phases of the socialist and workers movements of the Afro Asiatic world

Indonesian Women in Focus E.B. Locher-Scholten, A. Niehof, 2022-07-18 This volume contains a selection from the papers presented at an interdisciplinary symposium on Images and ideas concerning women and the feminine in the Indonesian archipelago organized in 1984 by the Werkgroep Indonesische Vrouwenstudies WIVS a Dutch interdisciplinary study group on Indonesian women In the present volume now in its second printing notions about women in Indonesia in past and present are treated in relation to their actual positions The articles deal with cultural definitions of sex roles and their social implications and thus link up with the current academic interest in gender studies The contributions occupy varying positions on an imaginary scale ranging from an approach primarily concerned with underlying cultural principles to one focused on the social context Some show a clearly culturalist approach dealing with female symbols in Balinese offerings female figures in Indonesian agricultural myths and Tolaki views on procreation and production The contributions on the images of women in Indonesian literature views on the prostitute in colonial society and the position of women in marriage in Madura and the Minahasa more or less take an intermediate position The sociological approach may be found in the contributions on the life of the educational pioneer Rahmah El Yunusiyah on Indonesian Chinese women on priyayi women at the Central Javanese courts and in modern Jakarta and on women s labor in pre war and present day Java Recurring themes such as sexual dualism ibuisism and the questions of female power and authority create unity in the diversity of regions and topics represented

An Introduction to Indonesian Historiography Soedjatmoko, 2007 In the first major work on Indonesian historiography to have appeared in any language twenty two outstanding scholars survey available source materials in Asia and Europe and discuss the current state of Indonesian historical scholarship the approaches and methods that might be fruitful for future research and the problems that confront Indonesian historians today The contributions which can be made to historical studies by other disciplines such as economics sociology anthropology and international law are discussed by specialists in these fields Problems of Indonesian historiography are presented not only from points of view of the different social sciences but also from those of historians who differ in approach and interpretation from one another This unique work now brought back to life in Equinox Publishing's Classic Indonesia series proves to be great value to historians and social scientists as an introduction to both sources for and different approaches to the history of an important part of the world Edited by one of Indonesia's leading scholars Soedjatmoko as well as Mohamad Ali G J Resnik and George McT Kahin An Introduction to Indonesian Historiography features contributions from John Bastin C C Berg Buchari J C Bottoms C R Boxer L Ch Damais Hoesein Djajadiningrat H J de Graf Graham Irwan Koichi Kishi Koentjaraningrat Ruth T McVey J Noorduyn J M Romein R Soekmono Tjan Tjoe Som F J E Tan W F Wertheim and P J Zoetmulder

State and Trade in the Indonesian Archipelago G.J. Schutte, 1994-01-01 The theme of this volume state formation and mercantile evolution in Indonesia has been the subject of historiographical debate for quite some time In recent decades the focus of this debate has shifted from the external challenge posed by westerners towards the indigenous response to that challenge and towards local and regional situations adding to the knowledge of state and state formation Nine case studies on state formation in the Indonesian archipelago illustrate this approach They deal with widely differing states in different periods and regions ranging from the twelfth century Javanese state of Kadiri to the twentieth century Netherlands Indies colonial state and from Riau and West Borneo to Buton and the Seram Sea Most of the studies concern states that came under the influence of the Dutch East Indies Company or its successor the Dutch colonial state The contributors to this volume are from Indonesia Muhammad Gade Ismail R Z Leirissa Edi Sedyawati and Suhartono and from the Netherlands F van Baardewijk V J H Houben L W Nagtegaal J W Schoorl and R Vos Based on in depth bibliographical and archival research these studies shed new light on historical situations and processes thus contributing significantly to the knowledge of Indonesia s past and its historiography A. Solo in the New Order James T. Siegel, 2021-04-13 In this brilliant ethnography of contemporary Java James Siegel analyzes how language operates to organize and to order an Indonesian people Despite the imposition of Suharto s New Order the inhabitants of the city of Solo continue to adhere to their own complex ideas of deference and hierarchy through translation between high and low Javanese speech styles Siegel uncovers moments when translation fails and compulsive mimicry ensues His examination of communication and its failures also exposes the ways a culture reconstitutes itself It leads to insights into the accidents that precede the formulations of culture as such Overseas Chinese Education in Indonesia Marilyn Clark, 1965 Separate privately supported Chinese education in Indonesia has performed the political function of intensifying Chinese separateness and thus retarding assimilation into the larger Indonesian society In addition private Chinese education has contributed importantly to the cohesion of that minority community Education was the chief means by which the Chinese businessmen s organizations sought to dissolve regional and linguistic differences which alienated factions of the Chinese community Through the use of a uniform language of instruction Chinese curriculum materials and a common interest in Chinese politics and culture the

Performing the Nation Jörgen Hellman, 2003 In sharp contrast to today's disorder was the apparent cohesion and stability of Indonesia during much of the New Order period 1965-1998 While Suharto's authoritarian rule was significant the regime's cultural policies also played their part in demonstrating that his regime created order throughout Indonesia not just through coercive means Ethnic religious and regional sentiments were to be channeled into art which was used to help develop a national Indonesian identity This theme is explored by this study which focuses on the efforts of a group of young art students based at the Bandung Academy of Performing Arts to revitalize traditional Longser theater

Durga's Mosque Stephen C Headley, 2003-08-01 For two decades now Stephen C Headley has been one of the most original and systematic ethnographers of Javanese religion and cultural history No one in contemporary Javanese ethnography has combed through the annals of nineteenth and twentieth century scholarship with as careful an eye for the variety of Javanese traditions None combines this historical ethnography with as careful and unusual body of contemporary ethnography Headley's new book brings these long developed skills to bear on contemporary religious change in the Surakarta region of Central Java In his analysis of the Durga ritual complex Headley sheds light on one of the most unusual court traditions to have survived in an era of deepening Islamization Headley's analysis of this ritual complex and its implications for our understanding of popular Javanese religion deserves to be read by all serious students of Java as well as anyone interested in religion in Indonesia However Headley moves well beyond this unusual ritual complex to take us through the twists and turns of religious culture and politics in what is one of the richest but also most troubled of cultural regions in Java The result is a rich multi layered and fascinating study one that changes forever our understanding of Javanese tradition in a Java becoming Islamic Robert Hefner Institute on Religion and World Affairs Boston University

The Vortex of Power Airlangga Pribadi Kusman, 2018-07-17 This book explores the role of intellectuals and governance processes in post authoritarian Indonesia Focusing on East Java the author argues that intellectuals have played an increasingly direct and practical role in the exercise of governance at the local level of Indonesian politics The book provides insights into how the collaboration between intellectuals and local politico business elites has shaped good governance and democratic institution building validating power structures that continue to obstruct political participation in the country In addition the book also delves into the contribution of local intellectuals in resolving the contradictions between technocratic ideas and governance practices in the interest of local elites Empirical studies included in the book add to the broader literature on the social role of intellectuals highlighting their role as not just defined by their capacity to produce and circulate knowledge but also by their particular position in concrete social and political struggle The author also explores the manner in which relationships between intellectuals business and political elites and NGOs in local political and economic practices intersect with national level contests over power and resources
