W. Shaner, 2019-03-08 In recent years policy makers have been paying more attention to the problems of small farmers in developing countries with the idea of increasing their production and standard of living The policy makers objectives are twofold 1 1 to help those whose welfare is materially below the rest of society and 2 1 to help a country increase its agricultural production With adequate agricultural policies these two objectives are mutually reinforcing For example increased food production gives farm households additional food for consumption and surpluses for sale Farmers can then use the money from these sales to buy items they do not produce and the buyers of farm products benefit from the increased supplies Farms Trees and Farmers J. E. Michael Arnold, 2014-05-22 This title aims to provide introductory and concluding surveys of the subject of farms trees and farmers Two central parts explore trends in farmer tree growing and the factors which influence decision making Eight case studies cover among other topics the need for tree products market access the allocation of land and labour and exposure to risk In showing why farmers decide to grow or not grow trees it seeks to increase the reader's knowledge about farming systems and to provide a guide to encouraging farm forestry throughout the world Social Science Department Working Paper Series, 2000 Validación de tecnologías en sistemas agrícolas Ricardo Andres Radulovich, Jan A.
