his insight into the inseparability of act and being in God What is less recognized is that Barth's theological understanding of dynamic covenantal relationship is also essential to his doctrine of the Triune God his Christology and theological anthropology God is revealed in Jesus Christ to be one in act being and relation Humanity is revealed in Jesus Christ to be essentially a unity of act being and relation The failure to see the ethical implications of Barth's theology can be traced in large part to the failure to grasp how Barth's understanding of God's being and act is also essentially relational Deddo's work corrects this oversight and opens up the door to better comprehension of Barth's trinitarian doctrine of God his Christology anthropology and ethics

The Human Image of God Hans-Georg Ziebertz, Friedrich Schweitzer, Hermann Häring, Don Browning, 2021-10-01 A new wave of religious energy is sweeping through the western nations Although God is disappearing from religious discourse in western culture both as a word and as a concept there is a definite undercurrent of religious ardour which is growing in strength It focuses all the more attention on the issue what or who is God in the modern era This is the question examined through systematic studies practical theology and empirical research that are presented here through anthropologically relevant theology Renowned international authors make it plain in this book the question of God is exciting again This book is
