Speaking And Listening Ages 7 To 9:

Speaking and Listening Through Drama 7-11 Francis Prendiville, Nigel Toye, 2007-05-09 This book is special It proposes a style of drama that liberates teachers and children from traditional dialogues The dramas each linked to a literacy text or wider theme are amazing I would recommend buying this It challenges but rewards with a new level of classroom dialogue Literacy Time This new book for teachers is timely and full of good ideas It demonstrates the value of drama as a means of achieving education that stimulates creative and critical thinking while also engaging the emotions Teaching Thinking Creativity Showing teachers how to use drama to promote speaking and listening for pupils including those who find learning difficult this book describes analyses and teaches how to use role play effectively and looks at how to generate a productive dialogue between teachers and pupils that is both powerful and enabling The authors present innovative methods for teaching across the curriculum which are genuinely inclusive and can help to motivate reluctant learners The how to section of the book describes a range of strategies and approaches o how to begin with teacher in role o how to begin planning drama o how to generate quality speaking and listening o how to use drama for inclusion and citizenship o how to generate empathy in drama o how to link history and drama o how to begin using assessment of speaking and listening and other English skills through drama The second section includes full lesson plans that have been tried and tested with pupils complete with detailed guidance on how to structure the work and how to play the teacher roles Each is linked to literacy the wider curriculum PSHE and citizenship The book is a valuable resource for primary teachers in training and in practice

Speak, Listen and Learn Tony Wood, 2015-04-10 This indispensable resource for teachers of pupils aged 7 13 years consists of a series of graduated lesson plans aimed at improving children s speaking and listening skills their self confidence and their motivation to learn ultimately leading to better school performance The scheme was developed and tested in schools during a four year period with over three thousand children and their teachers and focuses on class and group activities that are enjoyable as well as instructive All pupils are able to participate regardless of background academic standing or facility in English and the skills acquired are central to the National Curriculum for England and Wales Key Stages 2 and 3 Each lesson worksheet includes learning objectives guidance on preparation and organisation an activity guide and follow up suggestions all presented in a clear and simple manner to lead the teacher step by step through the session The materials are grouped into four levels of difficulty which combine to build a powerful range of abilities associated with persuasive and presentational speech dialogue and debate as well as developing the children s command use and articulation of English Each level consists of twelve starter lessons suitable for class based group work with sections preparing pupils for a variety of class competitions including public speaking poetry reading and debating The activities link naturally with other areas of the curriculum and topics already being studied can easily be incorporated In a parallel controlled research project highly significant gains in a nationally standardised test of non verbal reasoning were made over a seven month period by children who followed the activities for one lesson a week compared to those who did not These were well in excess of what would be expected for their increased age Particularly high gains were made by children of lesser ability and those for whom English was an additional language The improvements recorded were later confirmed by the schools own National Curriculum assessments of progress against targets where on average the project children exceeded substantially the end of year forecasts made by their teachers
