

Speaking Clearly

Pronunciation and listening comprehension for learners of English

Teacher's Book

Speaking Clearly aims to help intermediate and advanced learners of English overcome problems of understanding and being understood by other speakers of English.

Part 1 provides the learner with systematic practice in the spoken language, focusing on the major features of English pronunciation, from individual sounds to stress, rhythm and intonation. Learners can check their progress using the recorded extracts of natural speech which are integrated throughout the book. Part 2 further develops the learner's listening skills with longer stretches of spoken English and applies the information contained in Part 1.

Speaking Clearly

- integrates pronunciation and listening practice
- exposes learners to extracts of authentic speech
- provides systematic ear-training and pronunciation practice from individual words and sounds through to longer stretches of speech
- contains diagnostic tests to enable learners and teachers to identify problems and evaluate progress
- explains phonological features in clear non-technical terms
- Teacher's Book contains useful background information, practical teaching notes, keys to the exercises and transcripts
