Poetically Sketched Debra C. Ridgeway, 2009-02 Dear Reader I want to personally thank you for selecting my second poetry book to read which you may have purchased or received as a gift This book is a continuation of a personal journey for me dealing with the theme of Listen I believe we truly only hear a fraction of what is spoken to us which is highly dependent upon one's individual interest My quote on the front cover is evident of this I believe it's unfortunate that so often we hear words but don't really listen to them I hope that you be able to identify and connect with some of these poetic sketched impressions on listening that may relate to your own personal experiences covering a full spectrum of emotions Enjoy In keeping with the theme Listen the ear used on the front cover and other graphics was created by my nephew Leander Jr now 10 year old The author's portrait on the back cover was drawn by my niece Nakia when she was five years old in November 2000 which has a prominent spot on my refrigerator This is the second of several books in the Poetically Sketched poetry series In the future I plan to include children's books and short stories Thank you and have a Blessed One Debra C Ridgeway Backing into the Spotlight Michael Whitehall, 2017-10-26 Backing into the Spotlight is a hilarious and an unashamedly non PC memoir Now in his eighth decade Whitehall is a fine raconteur gloriously unreconstructed and still deeply suspicious of modernity Daily Mail Standing in front of a full length mirror in my dressing room at ITV studios waiting to go on to the set of Backchat I had a brief conversation with my reflection Michael what the f do you think you're doing Theatrical agent Michael Whitehall spent a career pushing others into the spotlight He had been involved behind the scenes with the careers of many prominent actors including Colin Firth Richard Griffiths Daniel Day Lewis Tom Courtenay Ian Ogilvy Judi Dench Edward Fox Michael Fassbender Angela Thorne and Nigel Havers But then much to his surprise his son Jack becomes a successful comedian and actor and decides that his new comedy partner should be his father Whitehall Snr finds himself reluctantly appearing on stage and then television cast as the archetypal grumpy old man and thrust in his early seventies into a whole new career in front of the camera Minor fame comes at a sedate pace one of the highlights being a record 300 000 win for charity with Jack on Channel 4 s The Million Pound Drop In this enchanting memoir Whitehall looks back on his life from growing up in suburban London in the 1940s and 50s with his saintly father and social climbing mother who coined the phrase la carte to describe people who were posher than she was and whose company she craved to falling into a career as a successful theatrical agent and producer As he says Actors can be egotistical greedy and vain but they re not half as bad as agents and producers Charming gossipy and above all very funny Backing Into The Spotlight is no ordinary show business memoir
