Speaking In Tongues Pen Canada Writers In Exile:

Speaking in Tongues Maggie Helwig, 2005 While writers living in exile have much to say they often lack a space in which to be heard Speaking in Tongues offers the personal reflections of writers in exile many now living in Canada as they engage with and interrogate the act of translation As one writer living in exile has said Crossing borders one after another is a bloody devastating experience but an experience done and over Translating the self into another self through another vocabulary is what we face right after we have finished the crossing It is the last border and it is invisible And it is there during the translation period that we slip away Eagle's Voices: Anthology with Poetry , From Models to Drawings Marco

Frasconi, Jonathan Hale, Bradley Starkey, 2013-09-13 This edited collection addresses the vital role of the imagination in the critical interpretation of architectural representations By challenging the contemporary tendency for computer aided drawings to become mere models for imitation in the construction of buildings the articles explore the broader range of methods and meanings at stake in the creation and interpretation of architectural drawings models images and artefacts These critical and often practice led investigations are placed alongside a range of historical studies considering the development of representational techniques such as perspective orthography and diagramming By also addressing the use of visual representation in a number of related disciplines such as visual arts film performance and literature the book opens up debates in architecture to important developments in other fields This book is key reading for all students of architecture and architectural theory The Writers Directory , 2013 Canadian Who's Who 2008 Elizabeth Lumley, 2008-01-05 Now
